Do not hesitate to ask for the fees the criminal attorney Clay County, FL charges for your case. It is true that different lawyers charge different service charges for each case. The fees usually depend on the client and the intensity of criminal act in which the appellant may involve. It also depends on how famous the criminal lawyer is in particular area. Some leading lawyers will ask you to make payment for hourly basis and others will demand fixed charges. It is left to you to decide which way is more beneficial in saving your pocket. Obviously any case, irrespective of whether it is civil or criminal will take its own time to carry on with the proceedings and trial and you cannot expect any trial to complete in just one or two sittings.

In case, if you want to pay for hourly basis, many attorneys may charge you $50-$200 for one hour. Again the rate depends on the crime you have got engaged and on the reputation of the lawyer. A felony arrest Orange Park attorney will have added responsibilities to take you out on bail and hence it is worth to pay him $150-$200 for an hour. Take time to find suitable lawyer who has experience and skill required for handling your case. If you feel hourly rates are too high for your budget, then you can always search on the internet for finding suitable lawyers for fixed rates.

In addition to hiring experienced attorney you have to make sure that you are comfortable while taking to him. He should show genuine interest in gathering information about your case for presenting it before the court. At any point, you feel that he is not showing enough interest in dealing with your case, it is better to change the lawyer immediately than to wait patiently. For those who are on budget, you can find junior lawyers of felony arrest Orange Park, Florida who charge reasonable fees. Another advantage in choosing juniors is they will, at any cost, try to win your case since they have to prove before the court about their capability in dealing new cases.

Some of your friends may advice you that you can represent your case personally and no need for hiring any lawyer for petty civil cases. But, one cannot predict how each trial will take twists on the court and it may land you in trouble. Get some referrals from your relatives for selecting good criminal attorney Clay County, FL so that you can win the case easily.
