Article published on December 31st 2011 | Aviation

Guwahati, a city in Assam and gateway of North Eastern India connects well by air with the city of Kolkata, the capital of West Bengal. There are daily Guwahati to Kolkata flights which are catering to the needs of common man. These Guwahati to Kolkata flights are being run by most of the airline companies in India, which includes Go Air, Kingfisher, Spice Jet, Jet Airways and many others.

Talking about the city of Kolkata, it is the capital city of West Bengal. It was earlier a fishermanâ€™s village which developed to become a metropolitan city in India. The city is the birth place of many intellects and is the perfect blend of culture and literature. With the passage of time, the city has adopted the modern culture but the lifestyle of the people remains to be very ordinary yet leisure, unlike metropolitans like Delhi. Kolkata is also popular because of the reason that countryâ€™s first ever underground railway network was setup here.

On the other hand, Guwahati is the beautiful city of Assam, which attracts the tourists from all over the country for many reasons. The major two reasons are the holy river Brahmaputra and the much popular Kamakhya temple. The boat ride from and to Brahmaputra river will actually make you realize that your decision of coming to Guwahati was cent-percent correct. Also, if you are taking along your beloved, you would love the idea of having dinner in the night view of Brahmaputra river at one and only Jal Pari restaurant. The other reasons why you would love Guwahati is the lovely weather, lovely people and easy ways of commuting, which makes it a speedy city. Flights from Kolkata to Guwahati and Guwahati to Kolkata flights are in big number. So, you can wish to commute between these two cities anytime during the year.
