Anthony J Cafaro, P.C. has been providing extensive knowledge and experience to the people of New Jersey for over twelve years now. Providing many services and expertise in a wide range of legal fields, a few of the reasons you might be giving Anthony J Cafaro a call might includeâ€¦

Divorce Wall, NJ

If youâ€™re a Wall resident and youâ€™re dealing with a divorce, then you know first hand that itâ€™s an emotional experience and can be very stressful, confusing and difficult on a personal level. By hiring a qualified attorney to handle much of the technical and legal and financial difficulty of a divorce for you, youâ€™re free to simply move on with your life and try to recuperate from the divorce.

Even the cleanest, most amicable divorces nevertheless tend to carry with them some burden of stress and financial difficulty. Whether you want to protect your assets through the divorce, get your fair share or just end things on a positive note, counsel with Anthony J Cafaro may be the difference between a positive experience and a wholly negative one.

DUI Attorney Wall, NJ

In some instances, a DUI case is trumped up and it becomes a far worse thing than it needs to be. In other instances, no DUI may have taken place in the first place, and in others, still, the whole thing might simply be a misunderstanding. Whether you are completely innocent or simply need to make the most of a bad situation, having a knowledgeable attorney on your side when youâ€™re being charged with a DUI can be an enormous help, and an enormous weight off of your mind. Nobody wants to get charged with a DUI, and we especially donâ€™t want the police to add additional charges on top of that initial charge of DUI.

Real Estate Attorney Wall, NJ

Whether you are buying a home or selling a home, whether you are renting a business or starting a rental property of your own, a lot of things can go wrong when moving real estate. Real estate, even in todayâ€™s topsy turvy market, remains one of the most lucrative investments around and one of the most valuable forms of property in that it is real property, not money, which fluctuates not only in value but in worth. In any event, if you own a piece of land, chances are anybody who has the slightest claim to it is going to be coming out of the woodwork to put their stakes in the ground. A good real estate attorney can make the difference between having to give up half of your lawn to the guy whose fence sits an inch over the edge and getting to keep every square foot of it.

The idea that only career criminals have an attorneyâ€™s number on hand is a ludicrous myth that we have the movies to thank for. The truth is that you never know when you might need an attorney. Keep Anthony J Cafaro, P.C.â€™s number handy, simply because you canâ€™t be too sure.
