Article published on January 29th 2012 | Business

Edinburgh is the seventh largest city in United Kingdom. The city is filled with historic buildings and is a commercial and a cultural centre. Edinburgh enjoys a worldwide reputation of warmth and friendliness. This is one of the main reasons why people choose to relocate in this area. Because of this there has been a property boom in Edinburgh and people have invested so much in terms of property, housing, flats for rent etc. Edinburgh is a wonderful place to live in and most of the people who move here, stay here for life.

LOCAL PROPERTY MARKET:

The local property market in Edinburgh is thriving. One of the main reason for this thriving market is that there are a number of desirable houses, apartments, flats for rent etc, waiting for the right people to move into them. Most of the residential areas are lively, bustling, leafy and suburban.

LETTING AGENTS:

Edinburgh also has a number of letting agencies with many beautiful houses and flats on their lists. These agents help people with their expert advice in terms of finding the right accommodation. These agents are well aware of the local areas and know them inside out.

AREAS IN EDINBURGH:

The waterside locations in Edinburgh are particularly popular with residents. Leith, South Queensferry, Granton and Muirhouse are areas which have superb vistas. These areas comprise of a variety of houses. From traditional townhouses to modern flats all can be found in these areas.

Moreover the University of Edinburgh is the oldest university in town. It has more then 20,000 students. Flats in the surrounding areas of the university are highly sought after. These flats mostly donâ€™t remain empty for long. Even the larger flats in these streets are quickly snapped up by groups and individuals.

Another affluent area of Edinburgh is Murrayfield. The area has local rugby stadium where exciting international matches take place. The flats in this area are amongst the most desirable in the entire Scotland. This is mainly because Murrayfield has an air of serenity and peace.

There are also some wonderful flats near City Centre which overlook the greenery of Holyrood Park.

Portobello is another wonderful seaside area in Edinburgh. It is very popular with visitors because of its individuality. The area overlooks a white sandy beach. And this is the main reason why so many people want to move here.

For the younger age bracket Haymarket is an excellent choice. It has a cosmopolitan atmosphere and a lively nightlife.

Flats for rent in Edinburgh provide something for everyone because of the diversity of neighborhoods.

Article Source:

http://www.articleside.com/business-articles/local-rental-market-letting-agents-and-areas-of-edinburgh.htm - Article Side

KateForbes - About Author:
Kate Forbes is a marketing officer for Greenlet, property lettings website in Edinburgh. If you want more information on a flats to rent edinburgh, please visit a Student accommodation.

Article Keywords:
Edinburgh property, Student accommodation, Edinburgh flats, accommodation in Edinburgh, student properties, rent in Edinburgh, for rent Edinburgh,

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!