Article published on February 5th 2012 | Business

Edinburgh has a choice of excellent accommodation for its visitors. These range from budget to luxury serviced apartments. There are also flats available for rent, which are popular with students. These apartments and flats are available to be booked for short term like two nights or more and can extend to several months. Apartments and flats in Edinburgh are available for all, those seeking accommodation for business, leisure and for relocation.

Serviced apartments in Edinburgh:

These apartments are service/cleaned by the owner or manager of the apartments. Laundry services are also provided. Edinburgh has many serviced apartments throughout the city and most of these are located in the centre of the city so that the renters can get the most out of their visit. These provide self catering accommodation and hence allow visitors to enjoy their stay to the fullest. There are serviced apartments with different standards so that people can select the one in their budget.

Residential apartments in Edinburgh:

These type of apartments are ideal for people who wish to have a temporary apartment stay for a longer period of time. This is mainly because they are affordable and at the same time they provide the privacy and comfort of a house which beats hotel luxuries any time. The residential apartments in Edinburgh are furnished, semi furnished or unfurnished. Hence the rent will depend on the level of furnishing, location, utilities and the rate of council tax.

Economic/ Studio Apartments in Edinburgh:

The city also has fully furnished and well equipped studio apartments with facilities of a kitchen. The studio apartments in Edinburgh comprise of quality facilities which are necessary for any family, individual or group. Just because these apartments are economic does not mean that they are uncomfortable or unsafe. They are all this and more. In short, studio apartments are the most cost effective solution for a stay in Edinburgh, be it short term or long term. This kind of accommodation is popular with students.

Self catered flats:

These flats are fully furnished with a kitchen, living room, laundry and a bathroom. These flats have a phone line, wi-fi or wireless broadband and a basic cleaning facility weekly. Self catered flats are available for short term and long term renting. They are very popular among students. The self catered flats in the city centre and New Town of Edinburgh are ideal for students. As all the amenities, banks, transport facilities, universities and colleges are at a reasonable distance. Moreover this area has a lively night life.
