China Tablet PC Market Forecast and Opportunities, 2016 by Bharatbook

Article published on July 7th 2012 | Business

Tablet PCs emerged as a revolutionary gadget in the consumer electronics markets with the launch of the iPad by Apple Inc in mid 2010. In 2011, the global Tablet PC market reached USD 35.3 Billion, which is expected to grow further till 2016. The China Tablet PCâ€™s market is anticipated to grow at the CAGR of around 53.81% with the wide acceptance and increased demand from consumers. Tablet PCâ€™s have filled the gap perfectly between a notebook computer and a smart phone. Global and China Tablet PC market are growing at the much faster pace than anticipated initially. The lower market penetration with increasing consumer acceptance is driving the industry growth exponentially. The new entrants are experimenting to show their product differently than usual by adding joystick, keyboard, stylus, brush, and changing the size to attract more and more customers. Till end of 2011, Apple Inc. is leading the market with its radical products followed by Samsung, ErenEben and others. However, the market share trends are expected to encounter strong changes from the current trend by 2016 which would lead the market dynamics to new heights. http://www.bharatbook.com/market-research-reports/consumer-electronics-market-research-report/china-tablet-pc-market-forecast-and-opportunities-2016.html

According to â€œChina Tablet PCâ€™s Market Forecast & Opportunities, 2016â€• China will witness phenomenal growth in near future. The outlook for the Tablet PCâ€™s market in China seems very promising as the overall consumer spending and acceptance is increasing in the country.
