Adventure Tourism in Manali â€“ Full of Thrilling Experiences

By Swati Paliwal

Article published on February 7th 2012 | Travel

Manali is beautiful hill town located in the state of Himachal Pradesh located in vicinity of great Himalayan Mountains. The town is exceptionally blessed by the natural. Its green and snow covered hill peaks, beautiful lakes and fruit orchards will surely lure travelers. Manali is one of the favorite destinations in India for snowfall lovers, the place receives good amount of snowfall throughout the year. The surroundings of the city also have great important in Hindu religion. There are several important temples and religious shrines located in its vicinity. According to Hindu mythology, the place is also known as the home of blessed seven sages. Besides all these, Manali is also the most popular adventure tourism spot in Himachal Pradesh.

Being a hill station Manali is also an important adventure tourism destination. It offers ample of adventure tourism opportunities. Winters are very cold and snowy here but in summers, the hill town becomes an ideal place for enjoying numerous sports activities. It is fully loaded with lots of thrilling adventures and fun. Trekking, mountaineering, kayaking, mountain biking, paragliding, cycling, skiing, white-water river rafting, valley crossing, and fishing are the most popular adventure sports of the city. Manali is also referred as the best place in Asian continent by the popular Time Magazine for its extreme yak skiing sports. This is also the only place in India to enjoy the adventures yak skiing.

Solang Valley is the most ideal spot of this hill station to enjoy most of these adventures sports. It is located just about 14 km distance form the heart of the city. Here travelers can participate in skiing, trekking, paragliding, sky diving and many other adventure sports. Travelers, who want to enjoy river rafting, can move toward Kullu located close to the town. It is the ideal place for white river rafting. The fast flowing rivers with crystal clear waters directly coming form snowy mountains and beautiful surroundings offer you an unforgettable experience of river rafting. Manali is also the gateway to reach Ladakh. If you want to enjoy the real adventure of mountain biking, you can hire a bike and drive to Ladakh passing through the rough terrain and snow capped hill ranges. This journey will be a most thrilling experience for your whole life.

You can also explore numbers of exciting trekking trails on your tour to Manali. Trekking is also the most ideal way to explore wonderful natural beauty, important religious places and other popular tourist spots of the town. On your Manali trip donâ€™t forget to visit Rohtang Pass, it the paradise for snow-fall lovers and located very close to the city. Rohtang Pass receives huge snowfalls even in summers and generally remains closed in winters due to excessive blizzards. Numerous worth visit religious shrines are also located in surroundings of the city. Hadimba Temple and Manu Temple are the two most popular and must watch religious spots of Hindus on any Manali Tour Packages ,so you can also visit these temples. Most of the Kullu and Manali tour packages also offer great chance to travel around several important Buddhist monasteries and popular very popular Manikaran Sahib Gurudwara that are also worth visit attractions of the city.

So if you are looking for adventures break from tired daily life routine, plan a trip of Manali. The place is a complete holiday destination and full of thrilling adventures. A well planned trip of the city will completely rejuvenate you and offers some memorizing experiences.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/adventure-tourism-in-manali-full-of-thrilling-

Swati Paliwal - About Author:
Swati Paliwal is an eminent analyst and writer in Travel & Tourism related topics. She has authored many books on tour guide for a Manali Tour packages and a Kullu Manali Tour Package for best holiday deals in Himachal Pradesh.

Article Keywords:
Manali Tour, Kullu Manali Tour Packages, Manali Tour Packages

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!