The award winning La Manga Club is a wonderful destination for a family holiday. This luxury resort in southern Spain has a lot to offer guests of all ages and interests. Before you book your holidays in La Manga Club it is a good idea to do your homework though.

If you learn more about this big resort you can find out what you need to know about the facilities and accommodation. This will help you to plan the best holiday for you and your family.

1. Choosing the Right Dates

The time of year you book your holidays in La Manga Club can be important. If you are on a tight budget it can be a good idea to book off-season. This will provide you with access to potentially cheaper accommodation and flights.

â€¢ The great thing about holidays in La Manga club is that the majority of the facilities are open all year round. The climate is also warm and sunny for most of the year.

â€¢ This means even if you do book your stay off-season you should still be able to enjoy all the great benefits of this luxury resort.

â€¢ If you are visiting the resort for sports training then you need to check when the best times of year are to do this.

â€¢ It could be that the best sports opportunities are available in mid-summer when the resort is at its busiest.

2. Choosing the Right Accommodation

Holidays in La Manga club can offer a great choice when it comes to luxury accommodation. This will provide you with plenty of options when it comes to picking the best places to stay for you and your family.

â€¢ If you want a complete break on holiday then opt for the luxurious Hotel La Manga Club PrÃ-ncipe Felipe.

â€¢ This 5 star hotel can offer world class service for a truly decadent and relaxing stay with great restaurants and bars.

â€¢ The hotel is also ideal for those planning golfing holidays as it is situated close to two top resort golf courses.

â€¢ If you prefer the flexibility of preparing your own meals then you may be better off with the Las Lomas Village site.

â€¢ This cosy onsite village offers a choice of great self-catering accommodation including luxury 4-star townhouses and apartments.

â€¢ Self-catering can be a great option for families and groups as this offers more flexibility when it comes to socialising and dining.

â€¢ Las Lomas Village is also ideally located for those visitors looking forward to relaxing at the nearby onsite luxury spa.

By taking the time to research the accommodation and facilities available you can plan the perfect holidays in La Manga club. This will enable you to take advantage of the resorts best features and create enjoyable and memorable holidays for you and your family.
