Choice of a Bridesmaid Dress by Jascinta Fedrick

Article published on December 15th 2011 | Clothing

A bridesmaid dress, a dress worn for your friend's most special day, her wedding. If you are given the honor of being a bridesmaid and witness the special event, you better look your best. You are going to remember this experience for the rest of your life; you are going to be standing next to the bride carrying her flower basket and taking care of all her needs. Certainly you are going to be there in most of the pictures, so the way you look and dress on the day will matter a lot. Selecting the perfect bridesmaid outfit will be a wise thing to do. Wearing the perfect dress, make-up and smile will do the best.

A bridesmaid outfit should be selected very carefully. It is as important as the bride's wedding dress. It should not be too flashy or too simple. If you want it to be simple in order to compliment the bride's wedding dress, the accessories clubbed with the dress should enhance the look of the dress. A bridesmaids wear can be either of the same color as the bride's dress or of the different color, but it should complement the bride's dress. A bridesmaid is supposed to enhance the whole occasion by her charm, and this can be very well done with a perfect bridesmaid dress. If your bridesmaid dresses are not up to the mark, it will spoil the whole effect of the evening.

Not every bridesmaid is going to have a perfect figure or a same physique as the others. Every bridesmaid will have a different body type. A dress might look good on one but at the same time it might look like a blunder on the other. So selecting a dress perfect for every bridesmaid at the wedding is a must. The other most important factor is the fabric. The fabric should be such that every bridesmaid should be comfortable wearing it. Some bridesmaids might not be comfortable wearing a fabric that is body hugging, so it is extremely important to select the fabric that each bridesmaid will be comfortable and happy with. There is a variety of fabrics available in the market including chiffon, crepe, satin, Georgette and a lot more. The fabric should be such that the bridesmaids should be able to carry it off well.

The length of a bridesmaid dress also matters a lot. In case of a young bridesmaid, carrying a floor length dress might be an issue. So the length of the dress should also be considered. Similarly selecting jewelry for a bridesmaid dress is also very important. If your dress is a simple one you can go for a pearl set that will look classy or you can go for danglers to dramatize the look. You can find a lot of online stores that offer cheap bridesmaid dresses and jewelry to go with the dresses. Such sites are friendlier to your pocket without compromising on the style you want.
