Cricket is one of those sports that end up being almost religiously important for the fans. During the peak tournament seasons, most fans are on the lookout for themed t-shirts on the lines of cricket and everything associated with cricket. There are so many brands and teams taking up printed t-shirts as their vehicle for brand promotions. They not only sport these t-shirts themselves but most of their fans are also extremely supportive of these lines oft-shirts.

Cricket themed designs can span from using element pertaining to cricket to actually sporting the team colors. While there are some copyright issues regarding the exact printing of the team numbers and the colors of the t-shirts, nevertheless the close team copies are always a big sell out in the markets.

The elements of the cricket themed designs could accept the general ones or they might range to the various team and advertisement identities of the various players. The cricket tournaments and leagues have now accepted the trend of separate promotional advertisements for various teams and players. They develop team songs, special uniforms and even come up with their favorite slogans. These become the highlights of every cricket design t-shirts available in the market. The t-shirts could also just sport the team colors and have emblazoned across the chest can be the slogan for the team.

Most fans wear these t-shirts to their favorite games as a show of support to their teams. As a result, these t-shirts have to be available in a variety of materials. Stretch cotton and mixed polyester seem to be the most popular choices because they can handle the strain of heavy sweating and jostling in the crowds of the stadium. Many fans also sport banners and tattoos to match the t-shirts and their teams. Since the field cameras occasionally pan on to the audiences during the games, it is important to create the best possible outlook for the team support.

Cricket themed designs are even popular outside of the fields. Branded t-shirts with incredible cricket designs have a great impact on the fashion industry. Many brands have also imprinted the players' images or graphic cartoons on to the t-shirts. Funny caricatures resembling the popular players and their current situation or a play on their styles is a popular variety of t-shits that are always in demand.

There is a subtle line as to what seems fashionable and what is not that classy when it comes to cricket themed designs on t-shirts. Hate messages against any particular teams or direct name calling and blaming any particular players printed on to t-shirts is not only morally incorrect, but can also get you thrown out of stadiums during games. It is necessary to maintain a little decorum.

However, everyone appreciates some good humor and a funny cricket t-shirt will always sell, as they are a part of the fun and the sport that is vital to most countries. International players also find a place on to regional t-shirts because the game has definitely reached global proportions with the variety of leagues intermixing players throughout the games.
