Article published on March 26th 2012 | Business

As a landlord you would be luckiest person if you know about the reliable tenant. If you do not know about the reliable tenant then you will have to find out the tenant but it is very difficult job. In this matter your job will be time consuming and can also be expansive in finding the reliable tenant.

Using services of a letting agent in Edinburgh:

If you want to advertise your property to rent in Edinburgh then the internet is one of the best ways. So the tenant can contact with you by the help of websites. On the other hand you can engage a letting agent and get services from him. This will save your time as he will be responsible to answer the emails, handling calls, staying for viewings and showing potential tenants around your property to rent in Edinburgh. A letting agent not only finds a tenant for you but also he shares your burden in making a contract and researching market. All research about the tenant is on the shoulders of the letting agent. It means that he will make sure that tenant has his own job, he is in good financial position and he is a credible person.

Meeting with the agent:

In case of property to rent in Edinburgh, you can meet with a letting agent and you can take the information from him about his services including his fee. One thing you must keep in mind that you must hire the agent just sake of low service fee or he can find a tenant who can pay more rent. For example some of the letting agents will include making a list in their regular fee while others will charge extra for this.

If you have the edinburgh property then you should hire an agent. In this case you should inform the letting agent about every detail like which kind of the tenant you want. You donâ€™t want pets in your edinburgh property then you should notify this to the letting agent so that he finds a tenant who agrees to this condition.

In case of renting edinburgh property you should give all the details relating to your requirements about the tenant. In this way the agent can help you in the better way. Firstly you should find out a perfect tenant then you, agent and the tenant can decide a date for move on. The agent will have the tenancy agreement signed on this date and make sure that the deposit and first monthâ€™s rent is handed over to the landlord for edinburgh property.
