Article published on December 2nd 2011 | Education

Earlier women were only described to have a role for family maintenance and men were described to have public role. The characters of women are different from the character of men. The women characters are always vulnerable, indecisive and devotees whereas the characters of men are aggressive, brave, strong and powerful. With this character the duty given to women is household works.

Women also have the capability to perform multiple tasks like taking care of a child, as a wife, member of the society and as an individual who has talents to grow. Even if they are involved in the corporate world, they do not abandon their domestic role. The multiple roles will not create any problem for them unless they donâ€™t limit their chance to build a vital role in the family, society, and in their nation. Unfortunately, the differentiation of roles between both sexes which is strengthens and included in educational institutions. Earlier, in the teaching process, the schools also gave different treatment to both sexes, which are often caused the girls/women not optimally improved.

The education in primary schools and kindergartens hold an important role in developing childrenâ€™s mindset in their formative years. In this phase children have good memory power that last for long. At this juncture, children are very sensible in recording the things such as in the form of speech, pictures and non verbal communication. In the initial stage boys and girls are any aspect of life and next, they become the generation who are respect to the equality of boys and girls or men and women. The school is the quintessential way to teach children besides the family and the society.

The school is meant to be the haven where people respect the equality of boys and girls in any aspect of life. All staff of the schools including teachers, school committee/school boards, and school policies, learning tools/books, and learning process should perform in gender equality perspective. All girls and boys learn in a different way and they have different mode of understanding. It is understood that some boys would rather read a book than play football and some would play football rather than playing with the barbies.Educators who understand these differences can inspire every child to learn to the best of her or his ability. Educator should not create any gender difference as education is same for everyone.

Onlineschooladmission.com believes that education is most powerful weapon which can be used to change the society. Education and society go hand in hand. A better society can be accomplished by imparting better education. Onlineschooladmission.com believes that better education can also be obtained through the best schools. To serve this purpose OSA has contributed its effort to let parents choose the Nursery schools and apply to them accordingly. OSA not only allows them to choose the best school but also helps them to fill the application form and send it to the particular school online and wait for the call for the interview of the child.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/education-articles/the-role-of-gender-education-in-school.htm - Article Side

Osawebmastersix - About Author:
This article has been written and posted by the team of OnlineSchoolAdmissions - a portal that provides free of cost consultancy to parents and schools for fast and easy online school admission process. Parents can locate a Step By Step School Noida or a Sainik School Kapurthala of their choice selected from the directory of schools listed on the site and applies to them. They can also search for a Kerala Public School as per their choice and fill up the school application forms online.

Article Keywords:
Step By Step School Noida, Sainik School Kapurthala, Kerala Public School

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!