Edinburgh is an enchanting place to be in. Its greenery and magical buildings takes its visitors in a dreamy world. The city has wonderful things and spots on its menu, like the Dynamic Earth, Edinburgh Castle, Camera Obscura, Royal Yacht Britannica, The Scottish Mining Museum, Scottish Seabird Centre, Union Canal etc. The city has wide open spaces with amazing views. The place has a perfect environment to enjoy and relax even in crisp winter days.

When deciding to stay in Edinburgh, there are a number of options to make the maximum out of your stay. The city has luxurious hotels to fine bed & breakfasts. There is also the opportunity to rent out apartments, flats, houses and even rooms.

PROPERTY OPTIONS IN EDINBURGH:

Edinburgh has some elegant Georgian Townhouses. These townhouses have well proportioned rooms with wonderful Georgian detail. These are an ideal place for familyâ€™s to enjoy their stay together. Most of these Georgian Townhouses are close to the City Centre in Edinburgh in the New Town. Some nice townhouses are also available in village of Stockbridge or the west end of the city. Because these townhouses are in the heart of Edinburgh, they are just a walk to the financial hub, shops, offices, botanic gardens and the main station. All the facilities of daily life are closeby.

Next in the property option list are the luxury flats. These flats can be found in the areas of Edinburgh, from the historic Old Town to the countryside of East, West and Midlothian. Some of these flats are self catered and furnished with fully equipped kitchens. These are an ideal investment opportunity for investors who are looking for long term rent or short term letting to the many visitors who come here especially for the festival. These flats are also famous with students who prefer to rent a flat or apartment rather than stay in university accommodations. There are a number of flats close to the universities and colleges which are up for grabs all year round.

Then there are sizable detached villas with gardens. These are in Murrayfied and Ravelston. These are good residential areas with quite streets and a number of private schools nearby.

Edinburgh also has Penthouse apartments. These have beautiful views which can be enjoyed with the balconies. These apartments have concierge service, in house gym and lifts.

Lastly, there are Victorian and Georgian stone built villas and large gardens. These are in the suburbs of Collinton, Morningside, Inverleith and Trinity.
