Riga is the largest as well as the capital city of Latvia. It has become a very famous tourist destination to spend weekends. This place is more popular among the shopaholics as this is a shoppersâ€™ paradise. You can find any item of your choice within a matter of sometime. Central Market is the most visited place here where you can go if you have come to this place with the sole intention of shopping. Riga weekends welcome you to have a wonderful shopping experience as you would get anything you want here. From your favorite DVD to meat, fish, vegetable, etc. you would get anything you can think of.

People who are interested to know about the nightlife here, would find it quite surprising that the nightlife can make their trip doubly enjoyable. The nightlife is especially meant for stag and hen parties as they have full freedom to do whatever they wish and to any extent. They can even enjoy lap dancing that maximizes their party spirit and make them enjoy the most. Moreover, there are medieval banquets that add to the celebration even more. This place also has something to offer to people who love nomadic lifestyle.

If you are visiting different places just to experience their architecture and heritage then this place would not disappoint you. The architectural wonders with different formats and styles would make your trip even more enjoyable. Thus, people from any strata of the society and with any intention can enjoy to the fullest in Riga this weekend. This place has to offer at least something to everybody who comes here. This makes this place a favorite among tourists. When you visit this place, ensure that you have your documents in place. Otherwise, it may get difficult to visit this place for which you have planned so far.
