Edinburgh is the capital city of Scotland. It is one of the most popular metropolitan spot in the world. Due to this it is an attractive and ideal place to study, work, live or just to enjoy a holiday.  Investing in property is Edinburgh is extremely profitable as the place is fully packed during the festival season, which starts in August. It is estimated that the cityâ€™s population doubleâ€™s in the festival season. Moreover the place is an educational centre. Students from all over the globe apply to the universities and colleges in Edinburgh because of its world class education and promising futures. Because of this, property in Edinburgh is in great demand throughout the year, be it in terms of flats to let, apartments for rent, rooms to share or rent etc. Edinburgh has a wide variety of buildings in terms of architecture. They differ from being completely historic to being completely contemporary.

Rooms available for rent in Edinburgh are most popular among students and young working professionals. Most of the rooms available for rent are in close proximity to the universities and colleges and are also at an easy walking distance to the city centre. This makes everything very accessible from the shops and grocery stores to hotels, restaurants, cafÃ©s and bus stations.

Rooms for students:

IQ student accommodation is one of the ideal options available for students in Edinburgh. The place has a stylish feel to it and at the same time it offers good value for money. Moreover it is located in the City centre which precisely means that all university campuses are at a walking distance.
