Activator 1000, the best septic tank treatment is the key to natural septic cleaning and septic maintenance. Activator1000 is a septic tank additive that contains enzymes and 2 different bacteria for septic tanks and septic tank aerators. It activates the bacteria that's in your tank already plus builds up additional bacteria. When you flush Activator 1000 down your comode, you are put billions of fast-acting, natural bacteria and enzymes to work. The high potency bacteria and the enzymes they produce act as a catalyst to quickly increase the fermentation process when coming into contact with organic waste, liquefying and purifying the solid matter in your septic system. This bacteria - enzyme action digests the dead organic matter and recycles these various wastes through the leaching fields back to the basic parts of the soil, air, and water from which they were formed. That is how , in addition to septic tank cleaning it will quickly break down and liquefy proteins, starches, carbohydrates, animal and vegetable fats and oils, and paper.

A common misconception is that if you aren't having an obvious problem with you septic system such as clogs, back-ups, or surface water, then your system is working great. It things were only that simple, right? The truth is your septic system is underground, so you never know how its working unless it does give you a problem. If you've ever had your septic tank pumped out, even once, that is a sign that your system is out of balance, and in need of additional septic tank bacteria. Activator 1000 is used as a preventative septic maintenance product and when used as directed, will eliminate all frequent septic tank pump outs and prevent any problem related to the malfunctioning of your septic system , potentially saving you hundreds, even thousands of dollars in repairs. As long as you use Activator1000 as directed you no longer will have a need to have your septic system pumped out. Calling a plumber or having the system pumped out are only temporary solutions. The problem still exists. Using Activator 1000 will fix the problem at its source, the imbalance.

Other septic tank chemicals and septic tank supplies are expensive and harmful to your system while Activator 1000 is the only septic treatment products 100% SAFE to Humans, Pets, Septic Systems, Septic Drain fields, Plumbing and the Environment . It is a much stronger than any septic tank treatment . After performing many tests on Activator 1000, an independent research group proved that Activator1000 is the most effective maintenance product that you can use. Because Activator 1000 contains no fillers like other over the counter septic cleaners, the already affordable septic tank treatment gives you more for your money. Close analysis of Activator1000 in controlled environmental tests shows its high potency goes to work right away against organic build-up.
