The Kanyakumari Yellow Pages: by Lisa John

Article published on December 6th 2011 | Advertising

Kanyakumari is considered to be the mixed culture and profound heritage. The energetic history and rich culture is seen in this city with good economy, excellent education, awesome arts, statistical history, and a hub of civilizations. All the people around here are very Eco â€“Friendly, Muslims, Christians, Hindus are the people you can see visibly. The place with the delight of beautiful waves that sings songs for the people who come across the world and visit the place of eternity. The mega Powerful Indian Ocean touched the impression of the British they named as Cape Comorin.

We can find many temples, Churches, religious, statues, and pillars. Many fortunate global ranked places like vivekanatha Rock, the height of thiruvalluvar statue, Gandhi memorial people who visit the place will never forget to visit the Memorial the fascinating fact behind here is on October 2nd the first ray of the sun ray passes on the exact place where the ashes are kept. Everyone who comes here will know about the delicious taste, recepies and food we get over here. The Hotels seen in this place are the Twinkling Stars. Many high class hotels with foreign trends, well equipped, clean and modern furnishing is seen in this place. The exciting Fun of Joy named as Bay Watch (amusement park) and Wax museum are the newest attractions of this place the destination is 2 km way from the sea. People from Foreign countries visit the place very frequently. It was also the area with strong commerce and culture. The capital Kanyakumari is Nagercoil.

Nagercoil is an industrial area. St.Francis Xavier church is the famous church in Kottar it was said that Xavier resided here and did his missionary work in the nearby area of Nagercoil.The Famous Hindu temple Nagaraja Temple ,the architecture of the Temple is done by Chinese cuttings of a Buddhist Vihar.In Nagercoil many Engineering colleges , Schools with international standards like Cambridge, Oxford , the attractions of here is the Sanguthurai beach, muttum beach, Chothaveli beach, Paechipari , Kodhayar, thiparaphu falls , Lots of Dams , are seen in the nearby areas of Nagercoil. It is considered to be the 12th largest city in the southern most part of tamilnadu.

This place came under the rulers of Chera, Chola, Pandya. Padmanabpuram is a place near by signs the dignity of Palace an important tourist area. The clock Tower of one hundred years old stands legendly at the center place of the town. In the 19th century Rev.Duthie from the European missionary presented the Clock of the tower to the Maharaja of Travancore.Climate around here are humid with a pleasant touch over the year. Languages Spoken by the People over here are Malayalam and tamil.Food preparation around here have a mixed taste of both Kerala and tamilnadu, coconut, coconut oil are the major ingredients used by the people. Taste of rhythm in this place symbolizes the love and nature of the people around here. The plantations done in these places are Rubber, cloves, cardamom. Trivandrum (Kerala) is 72 Kms from the NH47, Tirunelveli is 85 Kms. The famous village is Thovalai the place with blossom of flowers and homemade products.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/advertising-articles/the-kanyakumari-yellow-pages.htm - Article Side

Lisa John - About Author:
Lisa John is a expert content writer for places in kanyakumai , tourist place in kanyakumari, hotels in kanyakumari and a tourist place in kanyakumari. He's written many articles like a places in kanyakumari . For more information visit our site thekumariyellowpages.com. Contact him through mail at info.kumariyellowpages@gmail.com

Article Keywords:
places in kanyakumari, tourist place in kanyakumari, theaters in kanyakumari

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!