Lifestyle of a WSI Franchise Owner: Work the Smart Way by Jamshaid Hashmi

Article published on April 6th 2012 | Internet Business

One of the greatest advantages of a WSI franchise is that it lets you work using the lifestyle you want.

The success of your franchise is entirely yours to determine, based on your approach and actions. We provide you the tools, training and operating procedures for how to work with your clients, but the rest of the picture is your own to settle.

For example, one of the benefits of being self-employed is getting to set your hours in accordance with the needs of your schedule. You get to choose the times you operate, select your days off and days on, and in general set up your schedule according to your tastes. If youâ€™re a hard-gunning worker who likes nothing more than staying on the job, thereâ€™s a schedule for you. If you prefer to work a few hours every day, thereâ€™s a schedule for you. And if you prefer to work a few very intense days of the week and then have a nice long weekend to spend with your family, thereâ€™s a schedule for you as well.

Further, perhaps your style is more management-oriented than it is hands-on. Franchising allows the luxury of hiring an employee to handle the phones, contacting the clients with calls and updates, while you work on the big picture and have more time to yourself. This is a popular step as a franchise grows in particular, allowing you the hands-on experience up front that will let you be sure your employees know how to handle themselves, in addition to the award-winning training WSI can provide your team.
