Make an entrance with this essential guide to the ultimate womenâ€™s party dresses to see you through the party season in show stopping style.

Of course the little black dress is a classic, and for good reason. Womenâ€™s black dresses are timeless, sophisticated and can be transformed for all occasions with just an update of accessories. At River Island the style staple has been refreshed in time for the flurry of Christmas and New Years celebrations set to come over the next few weeks. Think jacquard and brocade detailing, glam embellishment or one shoulder detail and the obligatory sequin dresses that mark the onset of the festive season.

If youâ€™re looking for something a little brighter than going out dresses in eye-catching shades of fuchsia, emerald green and ruby red should to the trick. With Grecian draping, one shoulder shapes and cut out detail, these womenâ€™s party dresses are sure to get all eyes on you when you take to the dance floor.

Along with sequins, metallic are a must-have this season. Take your pick from shimmering silver, gold, bronze or pewter tones that give a glam look. Wear yours with some statement heels and a chic clutch bag to complete the look.

Whatever style of dress youâ€™re looking for, youâ€™ll be spoilt for choice at River Island. With gorgeous womenâ€™s party dresses for as little as Â£35 it really should be your first port of call for your big night out.
