Cocktail dress is regarded to be versatile that are ideal for you to attend prom, homecoming, sweet 16 and other special occasion. They are the new trend of the special 2012. However, do you know what this style means? Generally speaking, the perfect design comes in knee-length and mini-length. Just as the name suggest, the first length means that the hemline of the skirt is just near the knees. So it is usually landed on the list of the best options for the semi-formal events. Referring to the latter, it offers you a good opportunity to show off your slim legs, making you appear much taller and slender. It is easy to become a favorite in the closet for the petite girls.

I believe that there is no better option than the short gowns to dance. If you have no idea of how to choose a flattering one from the various colorful styles, go on reading this article.

It is easy to find that the popular silhouettes of short cocktail dresses are sheathing, A-line as well as princess. The first design is just tailored to women with perfect curves while the second one is sure to flatter almost all figures well. The last design is perfect for girls to highlight their youthful side. So, you should take your body shape into consideration when choosing. It is easy to find that the short outfit comes in a variety of eye-attracting hemlines such as high-low, ruffled hem, high splits, and full skirts and so on. They will create different look. It is wise to ensure the hemline you choose is suitable and comfortable.

In addition, color is regarded as another important factor that will affect your selection. In a general way, the bold and bright colors will look great on such designs. When it comes to the fabrics, chiffon and silk are ideal options. Although you have decided the style and color, it doesn't mean that you are done. In order to complement your beauty, some beautiful matching accessories are necessities that have a crucial effect on your entire appearance. At the same time, some details are worth paying attention, for example, your hairstyle and make-up are also crucial for your seductive look.

Referring to jewelry, simple ones are perfect for your charming look. It is suggested that you had better stay away from the heavy and bold jewelries that will weaken your beauty. Due to the special length, your shoes matter a lot. Usually, the lank shoes are most sought after. When you going to select your cheap cocktail dresses, if possible, bring your shoes along to try with your clothing to see if they can match with each other well.
