Here at Jason Charles Jewellery we stand for three core values, passion, creativity and craftsmanship. With a eye for the delicate design and exquisite finishing there is little doubt that should you wish to commission a jewellers Windsor with the acumen to design something of bespoke beauty then Jason Charles is the only name that you need to contact.

Based in Bracknell, Jason Charles is an established jewellers Windsor. We specialise in the design of bespoke jewellery for all occasions, though our focus is on creating jewellery for weddings and engagements. Indeed, the prowess of our Jewellers Windsor has allowed us the capacity to design wedding bands, and indeed all manner of jewellery Windsor in gold, silver and platinum.

As an innovative jewellers Windsor we place significant emphasis on contemporary technology. Embracing these methods we are well versed in finding and executing innovative ways to design and repair jewellery to exquisite standards. This ethos allows us to push the envelope and complete work that other jewellers Windsor simply do not have the capacity to do.

As anyone that has ever imagined their wedding will surely appreciate, it seems intrinsic that placing a bespoke wedding band on the finger of your partner is the surest way to solidify your partnership and ensure that your wedding is completely personal to you. As a leading bespoke jewellers Windsor this is what we are able to deliver.

The innovation of Jason Charles Jewellers Windsor is most suitably demonstrated by the diverse collection of wedding bands that we offer. Our w02 platinum marquise diamond wedding ring has a design that is truly breathtaking. With a cluster of exquisite diamonds cascading around the band, and a chunky platinum design this, wedding ring is one of the most distinctively-designed wedding bands that Jason Charles jewellers Windsor has ever undertaken, and a true testament to the innovation of our jewellers.
