The Booming of Reality Shows and significance of Oprah by Stuart Owens

Article published on March 16th 2012 | Communication

Reality shows are one of people favorites while watching television. There are many reality shows that we get to watch today. One of the people favorite reality shows is Oprah. Probably this could one of the earliest reality shows ever. Talking about Oprah, one personality that comes in everybodyâ€™s mind is Oprah Winfrey. Oprah is a bet founder of this reality show and through the media she has created a parallel connection to the world.

Oprah Winfrey was also a producer of this show and has won many awards for entertaining, enlightening and uplifting millions of people who have watched her show for over two decades now. She has also made her accomplishments over the global media and a philanthropist. She has been a role model and one of the most respected and admired personalities of the world. There are lots of things to speak about this show and an article wouldnâ€™t be enough to say a little about this show and the personality. During this show people get to watch celebrities and great personalities, national leaders in this program. We can listen to their experiences and also know what is happening in their real life.

Oprah Winfrey also travels to many places and conducting campaigns and many shows as well. One of her favorite shows during her tours quite recently was in Canada. This was her first ever broadcast in Canada. She brought her popular series to the Metro Toronto Convention Center in Toronto, Ontario and Canada. Oprah as usual takes the stage to conduct her lessons that guide her life. A few experts on various subjects were also present on the stage. Some of these experts were business catalyst Tony Robbins, Spiritualist Deepak Chopra, Bishop.T.D.Jakes and inspirational author Iyanla Vanzant.

Some of the activities that took place during this season was Oprahâ€™s life class was able to engage fans worldwide online just by Oprah.com. It features digital classrooms which have introduced new courses. It has also set up multi-platforms and has engaged over four million students from all parts of the globe online. Apart from this it also has 1.6 million unique visitors. It has users over two hundred companies who operate through this network. The tour has brought about an empowerment for women and Oprah has become a world renowned event management company that produces high profile business, leadership and personal development events that feature some of the most world renowned speakers.

Apart from world renowned speakers we also know that Oprah invites celebrities as well. One of such shows featured Julia Roberts. The main theme was about projecting Extra Ordinary Moms. The program was to explore the power of mothers. To say how courageous, brilliant and awe-in springing mom are. The love they have for their children and their desires to protect their future for their children. The program executed that mothers can fight like armies, outsmart politicians, demand corporations to change their priorities and also work to preserve the ecological balance of the world.

Another show produced Goldie Hawn is presenting a theme about â€˜Searching for Happinessâ€™. It was a kind of documentary about a quest of old age civilization and technological progress and its pursuit to happiness. Some of the suits brought about in the showed the secret for happiness. Some of the statistics show that as society progresses, the happinessâ€™s in the society also decreases. It also concluded that people have their own choice to choose their happiness. This was a thought of positive psychology. Likewise Oprah has contributed to the world significantly over the last two decades. I have some of these programs recorded using the ON Demand feature on his television powered by Charter Cable.
