Andaman packages and Kerala holiday packages: Go on enticing Indian holidays by Aanchal Gupta

Article published on May 24th 2012 | Destinations

If you are bored of your dull life, then you should take a trip to Andaman. Andaman is one of the finest beach destinations in the world offering an array of exotic beaches that are washed by the deep, blue Indian Ocean. Andaman packages pull in tourists from every part of the globe. At Andaman, which is a set of islands located in the south-east part of peninsular India, you can have a really exciting time amidst the sun and the sea. The heavenly delights of Andaman beaches are simply incomparable and matchless. Nowhere else in the world will you find so turquoise oceans and such pristine beaches!

Andaman packages offer you plenty of sporting action with some of the awe-evoking water sports like scuba diving, snorkeling, parasailing, wind surfing, boating, kayaking and water skiing. Corbynâ€™s Cove is one of the most popular beaches in Andaman and is extremely picturesque and filled with water activities. Then there is the famous Andaman water sports complex where you can dig into all sorts of recreational activities including water sports and great food. It also has a beautiful artificial waterfall. Also visit the famous Mahatma Gandhi Marine National Park where the underwater world comes alive. You can set your eyes on the coral and marine life in this aqua-park.

Andaman is also tinged with history. At Ross Island, you can come across some of the footprints left behind by the British in the form of churches, cemeteries, monuments and buildings. Smritiki Museum is another must-visit place for the lovers of art and history. Also, check out the Cellular Jail which is famous for its imprisonment of Indian freedom fighters. It silently brings back old memories of the Indian struggle against the callous British.

Other interesting sites that you can visit under the Andaman packages include Chidiya Tapu, Mini Zoo, Mount Harriet, Madhuban, Gandhi Park and Sippighat Farm. For accommodation, you can slip into the great hotels in Andaman. All the hotels in Andaman are decent, hygienic and reasonably priced. You will certainly face no difficulty while holidaying there with friends and family!

Kerala holiday packages: If you want to take a look at the southern part of India, then Kerala is the best holiday destination for you. Kerala is a small but beautiful state that is admired for its verdant landscape and natural backwaters. Kerala holiday packages offer you a trip into a land that boasts of majestic hills, cascading waterfalls, lush green jungles and enchanting lagoons. The boat-ride along the backwaters of Kerala is an ethereal experience. It is also highly romantic and thatâ€™s precisely why Kerala holiday packages are so highly demanded by honeymooners.

Kerala has something of everything- from beaches to hills to backwaters! Kovalam, Poovar, Kochi and Alappuzha boast of some great beaches while Alleppey is renowned for its backwaters. Munnar is a hill resort which is a paradise for honeymooners. Indeed, Kerala holiday packages will leave you spellbound and gift you timeless memories.
