Bangalore Resident Can Comfortably Travel by Bus to Shirdi by Lori Petty

Article published on February 28th 2012 | Destinations

Bangalore being the capital city of Karnataka State and a busy IT industry base, it has all the means of transport, namely, air, rail and road and its famous Kempagowda Bus Stand is a busy spot where hundreds of buses come in and go out every hour and Shirdi in Maharashtra State is very famous because many devotees of SriSai Baba throng to this place to make Prayers at His Samadhi and the DwarakaMayee campus, which are well known places of worship by Sri Sai devotees.

Bangalore Buses are there from and to Shirdi, enabling Sai devotees reach this place, which is also famous for few other shrines like Pandaripur temple, Shanisingapuretc, with online and offline booking facilities available from various bus companies and travel agencies.

BangaloreShirdi Bus Online booking is as simple as entering the portal of any of the travel agencies such as MakeMytrip.com and asking for the tickets, supplying the details of travel and making payment through Credit cards or Net banking. Alternatively, Bangalore bus reservations can be done in the offices of the respective transport organizations, and advance reservation is always helpful as otherwise bus tickets may not be available for the last minute travel. In inevitable situations one can always hop into the bus taking chance without BangaloreShirdibus reservation, however, such attempts are always risky ending with missing the travel.

Online ticket booking for Bangalore Pune Buses can also be done through Travel agentsâ€™ portals or through established online travel booking organisations such as Redin, the operators who ply Volvo buses between these two destinations include

â€¢VRL Travels

â€¢HKB Travels

â€¢National Travels

â€¢Raj Tours and Travels

â€¢Konduskar Travels

â€¢Neeta Tours and Travels

â€¢SRS Tours and Travels

There are at least 34 bus timings for Bangalore Pune Buses daily and the fares range for Rs 700 to Rs 1000 depending upon the timing, bus type and transporter.

BangaloreTirupati buses are operated by many transport organisations, such as

â€¢SKS bus

â€¢Sharma transports

â€¢Sreekrisna Travels

â€¢Jabbar Travels

â€¢HKB tours

â€¢Bharathi Travels

â€¢Kesineni

â€¢VRL

â€¢Naveen Travels

â€¢Meenakshi travels

And many others, whilst the travelers can go to any of the travel agentsâ€™ portal and book tickets for the Bangalore Tirupati buses of their choice all through online transactions.

Bus travel has its own advantages and risks, however, the road conditions having been improved very well with dividers throughout the highway between popular destinations and bypass roads eliminating entry into crowded areas of the cities en route, added with the experienced drivers being engaged for long distance driving requirements, a traveler can conveniently choose bus journey to reach destinations.
