Charismatic houseboats of Kerala

by Surendra Kumar

Article published on December 5th 2011 | Destinations

Kerala is well known for its rich heritage commonly called as Godâ€™s own country is filled with the unique opportunity to experience the breathtaking ecstasy of the scintillating scenery of the land of Green Paradise. One of the main reasons for the tourist attraction also lies for the captivating wonders of backwaters. The backwater runs a long boulevard like canals and lagoons where they are bordered by the gorgeous and majestic beauty of palm trees and coconut trees dotted around the backwater looks fantastic. When the houseboat floats on the silvery lake, a prostatic radiant scene of completeness appears with the compelling mixture of blended beauties.

The houseboat that is prevailing in this state were use mainly for the transport system in the earlier days therefore their routes are link to every nooks and corners of the state. There are the houseboats wherever the backwaters and canals are like the Alleppey, Kollam, Cochin and Kottayam are the places where the houseboat is popular amongst the people in the past. People in those days used the houseboats to exchange goods from the interior villages to the towns and cities but with the development of various routes it is hardly use nowadays. Instead of transport system the houseboats has become quite popular as tourist resort and entertainment.

If you want to have some ideas about these Kerala luxury houseboats, here are some of the details about this boat. You may have some doubt of its safety and other benefits render by this boat. To clarify you the local available materials are mainly use which are fresh and eco friendly like the bamboo poles and coconut fiber ropes are use for making the boat decorated with coir carpet. Anjili wood one of the finest wood is use for making the boat with an intrinsic design crafted inside.

The houseboat looks alluring and renders excellent impression on the viewer. The cozy small houseboat in appearance is small in size possesses immense facilities and comforts with fully furnished single, double or triple and five bedrooms with sundeck. There are the private balcony equip with well furnish chairs, comfortable kitchen and WC toilets.

You can have a travel on the Kerala houseboats experience the frolic excitement amongst the fresh glittering water of the backwater in Alleppey where the houseboat floats with the majestic look. Standing on the balcony of the boat you can enjoy the real beauty of the whole scenery around you clearly with just a shot of glimpse where in just a moment you will be lost in the world of the real heavenly estate. This luxury boat can take you for sightseeing where you can enjoy the maximum excitement and thrill of toddy tapping and have a soft drink of toddy liquor to refresh yourself.

Kumarakom Houseboat is also one of such luxuriant houseboat available in Kumarakom to have fun with lush green paddy field and visiting the bird sanctuaries located around where you can see the birds and also wild animals preserve in other sanctuaries. To experience the thrilling adventure with the wild living things such package will be the best suiting resort where you safety and enjoyment goes simultaneously in the cozy boat. Therefore many of the natural lovers rush for this houseboat to enjoy their honeymoon, spent holidays and best vacation and make unforgettable memories.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/destinations-articles/charismatic-houseboats-of-kerala.htm - Article Side

Surendra Kumar - About Author:
Surendra writes about various beautiful tours and travel destinations of the world. I am providing valuable information on a kerala houseboats For more information visit to a houseboats in alleppey.

Article Keywords:
Kerala Houseboats, Kerala Luxury Houseboats

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!