Kerala the Place Where Natureâ€™s Beauty is Bounteous and Marvelous

by Manju Chandra

Article published on March 14th 2012 | Destinations

Also known as â€œGods Own Countryâ€•, Kerala is situated in the Malabar Coast of Southwest India. The state of Kerala is most well known for the immaculate natural beauty it possesses. The state is abundant in natural beauties such as emerald backwaters, tropical forests, lush green hills, cascading waterfalls, vast tea gardens, pristine lakes, caves, wild animals and colourful birds, scenic views etc. It is not only the beautiful natural beauty present here that gives the place its charm but the ancient temples and the rich cultural heritage too enrich the state with its mystifying atmosphere.

A travel to this enchanted place of beauty and splendor with Kerala holiday packages provided by us makes your holiday as magical as the land you will be traveling to.

The most prized possession of the state is its emerald backwaters. The calm and serene backwaters of this place are so enchanting you canâ€™t help but get spellbound by the magical aura it possesses. A cruise on the backwaters aboard a houseboat or a canoe is a must, for a trip to Kerala void of this is would not be a trip to Kerala at all. There are many backwaters in the state to choose from and the best among them would be the ones in Kumarakom, Alappuhza, Vaikom, and Cochin.

After the enchanting ride on the emerald backwaters take a tour on land visiting the famous Munnar hill station which is known for its lush green hills, picturesque sceneries, and vast tea gardens. Kolukkumalai Tea Estate, Mattupetty Dam, Kannan Devan Tea museum, Rajamalai (Eravikulam) National Park, Muniyara Dolmens and Top Station are the main highlights of this quiet hill station. The sights seen here are really a pleasure to the eye as the colours of nature exhibited here are really mild and heartwarming. Visit this wonderful, quaint and peaceful hill station with our Munnar holidays packages and enjoy the beauty of nature, which enhance the beauty of Kerala tourism.

Another highly revered feature of the state is the vast number of ancient temples that dot the state. Religion is an integral part of the state and the temples here have magnificent architecture which will awe you. The temples here are associated with spellbinding legends and stories that will rapture you with its magic. Some of the most frequented temples here by devotees are Pazhaya Sreekanteswaram Temple, Pazhavangadi Maha Ganapathi Temple, Attukal Devi Temple, and Ambalapuzha Sree Krishna Temple. A visit to these temples will surely earn you the blessings of the various Gods and Goddesses that reside here.

Apart from the backwaters, hills and temples the other places of interest in the state would be the Periyar wild life sanctuary which is dedicated to protecting the endangered tigers, cascading waterfalls such as Athirappally waterfalls, Atukkad waterfalls etc and the various Kathakali centers. A visit to the Kathakali centers would definitely be once in a life time experience as this dance form is indigenous to the state and the performances given here are really enchanting. Watch brightly painted and attired dancers tell stories of the epics in dance forms and watch the characters of the epics come to life.

Come visit the land where nature has prospered and culture is still well preserved which are very worth to explore with any tour to Kerala.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/destinations-articles/kerala-the-place-where-nature-s-beauty-is-bounteous-and-marvelous.htm - Article Side

Manju Chandra - About Author:
Manju Chandra is an eminent analyst and writer in Travel & Tourism related topics. She has authored many books on tour guide for a tour to Kerala . For more details visit a Kerala tours .

Article Keywords:
Kerala Tourism, Tour to Kerala

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!