Ooty is one of the most popular holiday destinations and not without a reason. With snow capped majestic hills, tranquil and scenic lakes and impenetrable green forests, Ooty tour offers a blissful experience to the newlyweds and young lovers. Ooty, the capital of Nilgiri district in Tamil Nadu, is fondly dubbed as the â€˜Queen of Hill Stationsâ€™, and features an unmatched beauty that invites honeymoon travelers from far and wide.

What make Ooty a perfect honeymoon destination are its picturesque landscapes and a year-round pleasant weather. An Ooty tour usually lasts for a week if one wishes to explore all major attractions in/around this hill station. Tourists can enjoy boating and fishing at the serene Ooty Lake to store dawdling memories. Apart from that, a visit to the Botanic Gardens lets them exploring an amazing range of flora. Ootyâ€™s railway station itself is a renowned heritage site that gives a glimpse of railways of the British time. Moreover, lambâ€™s Rock, Kodanaduâ€™s View Point, Madumalai Wildlife Sanctuary and Kolhatty waterfalls are some places honeymooners love to visit during their Ooty tour.

Your Ooty honeymoon trip will surely be a pleasurable experience as the place offers a vast range of accommodations to perfectly match your requirements and budget. There are several traditional hotels, five star villas and luxury hill resorts, offering world class amenities doubled with high quality of customer services. Being located at picturesque locations, these accommodations provide the guests with panoramic views of verdant valleys and lush green mountains. However, a number of budget hotels are also there, which offer quality lodging facilities at economical rates. Also, you can join some events and local festivals like Makar Pongal, Tea and tourism Festival and Flower Show during your Ooty Honeymoon trip.

Arranging an Ooty honeymoon trip has become quite simpler with countless of tour packages are being offered by travel companies. You can buy an Ooty package from a reliable source, and can ensure a pleasant journey without hassles. However, itâ€™s highly necessary to do planning for your honeymoon trip a bit earlier. Keep the following points in mind while planning for your Ooty honeymoon trip.

Do examine the weather before leaving for Ooty travel. Your packing of cloths and other necessary things largely depends upon this factor. If youâ€™re traveling in winters, donâ€™t forget to take warm clot as the atmosphere becomes quite chilly during this time.

Check all travel documents including passports, hotel address, tickets etc carefully. Make sure all the documents are ready.

There are some historical places including museums and monuments in Ooty, where decent cloths are allowed. So, even if you visit in summer, keep some full sleeved shirts and trousers in your luggage.

Youâ€™re going to a hilly area where altitude sickness is common problem among travelers. So, do consult with your doctor before opting for an Ooty tour.

Pack light in a suitable bag instead of packing in large suitcases. Also, donâ€™t forget to carry your camera and other necessary equipment while packing your luggage.
