Prove Your Career Vision with Maharishi Markandeshwar University

by Mukesh Kumar

Article published on January 18th 2012 | Education

The Maharishi Markandeshwar University (MM University) is a well-known and reputed private university in the Indian States of Haryana and Himachal Pradesh, and one of the most prestigious private universities of the country. At present, Maharishi Markandeshwar University has a total of four huge campuses in the places of Mullana, Solan, Ambala, and Karnal, each campus providing education, research, and training in diverse fields of contemporary importance, to the students and professionals of these States and other States of all across the countries. 15% of seats in each of its campuses are reserved even for NRI candidates. All constituent colleges of Maharishi Markandeshwar University are recognized and approved by proper regulatory and governing bodies of National and State Governments, such as AICTE, Medical Council of India (MCI), Dental Council of India, Indian Association of Physiotherapists, Indian Nursing Council, and concerned Central Universities. Well-equipped with all modern educational infrastructure and equipments, and a wide range of impressive facilities, MM University is dedicated to offer high quality education and research in the technical, professional, and medical fields, along with overall development of students in respect of personality, moral, and social concerns, as per the emerging requirements of the nation.

Colleges of Maharishi Markandeshwar University has been very elaborately well-established by renowned Maharishi Markandeshwar Education Trust, in the above mentioned appropriately suitable locations. This nationally and internationally famous trust was established by Shri Tarsem Kumar Garg in Ambala (Haryana) in November 1993. This visionary trust was incepted with the noble objectives of educational, moral, social, industrial, and economic uplift of the society in general. This punctilious trust commands the privilege of setting up the very first self financing Engineering college, Medical college, and Deemed University in the State of Haryana.

The Solan Campus of Maharishi Markandeshwar University is well-established beside the Chandigarh-Shimla National High at Sultanpur Road in the Solan district of Himachal Pradesh. Spread over an expanse of 47 acres, this Solan Campus of MM University is very beautifully surrounded by exotic and lush greenery, cloudy hills, high verdant trees, and great pastoral beauty. Adorned ornately with highly qualified and dedicated faculty members, world-class educational infrastructure, laboratories with all modern state-of-the-art equipments and accessories, huge and well-organized library, and all lavish facilities on its campus, this solan campus of MM University offers a rather broad range of courses in the fields of Engineering and Technology, Computer Technology, and Business Management at present. It was set up in the year 2009, and started its academic session in the year 2010-2011. In near future, colleges of Medical Sciences, Hotel Management, Dental Sciences, Nursing, Fashion Design, and Pharmacy, are planned to be established within its campus.

Most of the Maharishi Markandeshwar University courses offered by its campuses in Mullana, Solan, Ambala, and Karnal, in the fields of Engineering, Technology, Medical Sciences, Business Management, Pharmacy, Nursing, Computer Technology, Dental Sciences, Physiotherapy and Rehabilitation, Hotel Management, Law, Fashion Designing, etc., are highly commended, popular, and recommended, in all across the whole country. Maharishi Markandeshwar University syllabus for these courses at diverse levels and fields, is quite enriched, profession-oriented, and research based. Moreover, these courses are taught punctiliously by erudite and experienced Maharishi Markandeshwar University faculties.

The criteria for Maharishi Markandeshwar University admission are ranking and marks obtained in the AIEEE, MAT, GATE, and other nationally recognized entrance examinations for selection of meritorious, talented, and most competent students, scholars, and professionals of diverse sectors. For admission to courses of some fields common entrance exams and qualifying exams are conducted by the university itself. High marks and performance at the previous academic level, are beneficial for finding admission to the MM University. For the latest information about the Maharishi Markandeshwar University admission form dates, Maharishi Markandeshwar University examinations, and also Maharishi Markandeshwar University results, readers are advised to visit its official website.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/education-articles/prove-your-career-vision-with-maharishi-markandeshwar-university.htm - Article Side

Mukesh Kumar - About Author:
More important to choose your universities while plan to a study in india among various universities including a executive mba and lots more like a maharishi markandeshwar university and lots more.

Article Keywords:
study in india,executive mba,maharishi markandeshwar university,entrance exams,best part time mba programs

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!