Article published on June 27th 2012 | Education

Religion comprise of an important part of Indian culture. As a country, India has been origin to many religions viz. Hinduism, Buddhism, Jainism and Sikhism. India as a country has also provided homage to the followers of Christianity, Islam, Zoroastrainism and Judaism and Hindu who follow various Hindi Religious Books in India.

Over the ages, India has been a country where wide range of religions co-exists to share the mutual customs and traditions that follow their own religious books. While the co-existence of various such religions is a fact, the other fact which exists is that most of the religions have derived their roots from Hinduism.

While the religious books of many of the offspringâ€™s religions are read by the respective followers, books on Hindu Religions will be highlighted in this article. The following are the most important Hindu religious books in India which are widely followed-

The Vedas â€“ the oldest of the Hindu Religious Books in India

Amongst all the Hindu religious books in India, the Vedas belong the oldest of the category. There are four types of Vedas â€“ Rig Veda, Samar Veda, Yajur Veda and Atharva Veda. Also, from amongst all these, the rig veda is the oldest of all. These Vedaâ€™s contain deep spiritual values and consists of chants, hyms, metaphysical preaching as also rituals which were followed in old age India.

Upanishads â€“ Second oldest Hindu Religious Books in India:

Upanishads, which also belong to one of the oldest Hindu Religious Books in India, bring together the concepts of atman (soul) and Brahman (the ultimate truth) and explain how both of them are connected through spirituality and its different forms like meditation and so on.

Puranas:

The Puranas, also are one of the Hindu Religious Books in India. These Hindu religious books narrate the entire history of the creation of the universe from its creation to devastation to successive heirs of the kings, demigods and brave heroes and so on. In all, there are around eighteen such Puranas which are broadly divided into three divisions viz. Bhrama, Vishnu and Shiva which are named after Hindu Godâ€™s.

Bhagavad Gita: The most respected of the Hindu Religious Books in India

The Bhagavad Gita or the Gita as it is often called is one of the most sacred Holy Book of Hindus and consists of philosophical exchanges between the Lord Krishna and the warrior prince â€“ Arjuna. Overall, the book is a passage or more neatly said and an excerpt of the great Epic- Mahabharata. It entails the details of devotion, duty, meditation, selflessness as well as other subjects of Hindu philosophy.

The â€˜Manusmriti' also forms a part of the Hindu religious books and typifies the social codes of the caste system related to the Brahmins.

Religious Books Price:

These Hindu religious books which are followed widely across by all the fellow Hindus and people of other castes are available in all books store and are reasonably priced across India The religious books price can be also checked out on various websites to get a price to suit the readerâ€™s pocket.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/education-articles/the-major-composition-of-hindu-religious-books-in-india.htm - Article Side

Paul Smith - About Author:
Paul Smith is well known author who provide helpful information about a The God Delusion, a Bhagavad Gita and a The Blood of the Lamb of God etc, through Online Shopping in India.

Article Keywords:
The Vedas, Upanishads, Puranas, The Bhagavad Gita

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!