Article published on March 16th 2012 | Outdoors

Udaipur, popularly called as the â€œCity of Lakesâ€• is one of the most wonderful destinations in Rajastha to explore. The city is home of several picturesque lakes and also regarded as the most romantic cities in the country. Pichola, Fateh Sagar, Jasmand, Dudh Talai and Rajsamand are the most popular lakes of the city.

Pichola is the most scenic lake in all of them and also houses two beautiful islands namely they are Jag Niwas and Jag Mandir. Both these islands contain a glorious place and decorated with the well maintained gardens. Now these palaces converted into world class heritage hotels all the luxury tourist services and facilities. Boat ride over picturesque Pichola is the only way to reach at these palaces that makes them exciting for the travelers. These heritage hotels are the dream destination for numerous honeymoon couples to enjoy their wedding at the romantic island amid all the exceptions tourism facilities and services.

Besides its scenic lakes and heritage hotels, the city also has several appealing tourist attractions in its vicinity. City Palace, Udaipur is the most popular of them. It is located at the east bank of Pichola. It also offers scenic views of the lake and its islands. It was well designed with series of courtyards, overlapping parathions, terraces, corridors and gardens. The beautiful wall paintings of Lord Krishna and numerous other palaces like Dilkhush Mahal, Sheesh Mahal, Moti Mahal and Krishna Vilas are the most impressive part of the grand historical monument. The palace also houses several important antique stuffs, old paintings and old weapons related to the Rajput dynasty. Thousands of travelers visit this palace every day.

There are several other attractions also available in vicinity of Udaipur to explore like Monsoon Palace, Jagdish Temple, Saheliyon-ki-Bari, Gulab Bagh and Zoo Maharana Pratap Memorial and Nehru Garden. Travelers can explore all these by hiring car rental service in Rajasthan in less time and budget. You will easily find car hire Udaipur agencies in the city.
