Are you presently in the process of undertaking the monumental task of organising your wedding? Have you arranged the flowers, booked the reception, chosen the bridal party and even managed to find that wedding dress that is perfectly suited to your frame, skin colour and sense of style, and yet the sense that youâ€™ve forgotten something is prevalent in your mind. Then like a freight train epiphany strikes, you need to organise a wedding photographers Colchester.

Here at The Edge Photography we are proud to offer some of the foremost Wedding Photographers Colchester services of any business in the city. Indeed, as wedding photographers Colchester for the twenty first century we offer a contemporary and pioneering service that cannot be matched by competing wedding photographers Colchester, or throughout the UK.

When you come and pay us a visit online you will be treated to a wedding photographers Colchester service that is as innovative as it is creative. We take immense pride in the presentation of our collections, and this ethos and meticulous attention has seen us grow to become trusted throughout the industry.

The Ede Photography is different from other wedding photographers Colchester in that we do not limit the amount of images that we capture on the day. From the hilarity of the Best Manâ€™s speech to the reception party, our wedding photographers Colchester will be there to capture a multitude of shots of the most exquisite and celebratory moments of your wedding celebration.

Although we primarily operate as wedding photographers Colchester we are well versed operating throughout the whole of the UK. Indeed, we have travelled the length and breadth of the country to offer our services to customers north, south, east and west, so the location of any wedding venues is never a problem.
