Creative Ideas of Tattoos on Girls by Openerdkhon

Article published on May 14th 2012 | Art

In the earlier days when tattoos were just beginning to gain popularity, girl tattoos were thought to be offensive and rebellious. As time progressed, this view has completely disappeared and now tattoos on girls are not considered offensive and rebellious any more, instead they are socially acceptable and attractive lately. Women tattoos are gaining more and more popularity as a means of fashion wear among women.

The main difference between tattoos for men and women lies in the primary fact that men are heavily built and have thick skin whereas girls have sensitive skin. The factors of allergies, irritations and skin infections also vary between men and women; hence they are specially designed to meet these requirements. Surprisingly, the category meant for girls are more stylish and prettier as compared to that of boys.

There are always some trends in the designs for women. The latest trendy designs need to be reviewed before opting for them. Flower designs are very feminine and make good for girls. Dolphins are also very famous designs for their cute and charming looks. Dragon fly pattern offer different vibrant colors and they are liked by many women. Zodiac patterns are always one of the top choices for tattoos for both men and women.

Stars and star cluster designs have been gaining good popularity these days. Butterfly designs are also preferred for their simplicity and vibrant color schemes. Tribal designs are also preferred by some women. These patterns typically sport designs covering the entire arm. Fairy tattoo designs are also common for obvious reasons.

Besides knowing about different designs in tattoos on girls, it is absolutely necessary to know about various nice spots on the body to put a design. Especially in the case of women, they may find some places they usually visit where they need to be conservative, hence the areas on the body where tattoos can be sported need to be carefully chosen so that they can also be covered when needed.

Famous areas on body for tattoos are inside wrists, hips, shoulders, back of the neck, lower back, feet and ankles where they can be easily covered when needed. Tattoos sported on the back and long designs on calves are very good option though.

Having a good knowledge of designs and the perfect areas on body for them is really useful and it avoids embarrassment in unnecessary situations and pleasure and excitement when needed. It would be wise for the women, to get the help of a best artist with experience in tattooing to avoid any problems in the future.
