Oil painting is one of the noblest decoration paintings. Handmade and copy painted according to customersâ€™ requirements, oil painting have unique style. The relatively popular themes of oil painting in the existing market are landscape painting, figure painting and still life painting. Having developed to contemporary times, oil painting wins more and more popularity among people.

An oil painting hanging in your house indicates you have a unique and refined taste. Oil painting application is 'fat over lean'. This means that each additional layer of paint should contain more oil than the layer below to allow proper drying. There are many other media that can be used in oil painting, including cold wax, resins, and varnishes. These additional media can aid the painter in adjusting the translucency of the paint, the sheen of the paint, the density or 'body' of the paint, and the ability of the paint to hold or conceal the brushstroke. These variables are closely related to the expressive capacity of oil paint. But not everyone can have or afford for a real oil painting painted by famous painters. For those people the alternative would be a delicate replica. Instead of meaning you donâ€™t know how to appreciate a painting, owning a replica shows your guests that you have a good taste and you know how to appreciate arts. And you donâ€™t have to pay a sky-high price.
