Huddersfield, the place that is bounded by breathtaking rural area or country side is also recognized as the place of Victorian architecture. Huddersfield has got the third highest place of the listed buildings for any particular city or town in the UK. This place plays an important role in the Industrial Revolution and it is also the birthplace of Rugby League. Today it is a town of higher education together with proper media and sports. The most prominent landmark in the Huddersfield area is the Victoria Tower on Castle Hill. Some of the cultural events that take place here are The Pink Picnic, Huddersfield Festival of Light and Huddersfield Caribbean Carnival.

In the rural part of the Huddersfield you will find variety of parks as well as walks. But, the night life here is not that interesting. The award winning railway station here provides trouble-free access to Manchester and Leeds. They will even take to any part of the country that you desperately want to visit. You will also find that there is good access to M1 and M62 which is quite close to Leeds, Manchester and Bradford airports.

In Huddersfield there are basically short of apartments. As there is limited number of developments taking place therefore the ratio of demand to that of the supply is quite low.
