Points of Consideration for Purchasing Garden Furniture

by Laverna Cynthia

Article published on February 16th 2012 | Gardening

It is great to have a garden or some outdoor space where some pieces of garden furniture can give the whole space a different feel. There are many types of garden furniture to choose from; hence, certain points of consideration should be taken when garden furniture is to be purchased.

Designs

The designs of garden furniture are varied with the creativity and innovation of furniture manufacturers. There is a myriad of design for garden furniture that would make a purchase quite daunting unless there are some preferences in mind already. Some may prefer wooden garden furniture while others like steel designs. Many homeowners have specific preferences towards certain designs, colors, styles and material types when it comes to garden furniture.

Â

Delivery

Unless it is a small or single piece, garden furniture sets are usually bulky and come in a few number of pieces which may not fit the car for a personal transportation. Hence, delivery option by the retailer for the garden furniture purchased should be considered before paying for the pieces. There are some retailers who do not deliver purchased pieces regardless of the number or the distance. It is best to enquire if there are appropriate delivery services for the garden furniture desired to be purchased.

Some retailers do charge a delivery fee; this should be agreed upon before accepting the delivery services. Usually a flat delivery fee is charged but there are retailers that charge according to the number of pieces ordered, the total purchase price or the location of the delivery. Certain retailers may not deliver purchased goods during weekends or at nights; others do not deliver to factories or P.O. addresses. Hence, the delivery details need to be understood carefully before purchasing the garden furniture pieces.

Online purchases

Although online Garden Furniture Sets purchases are growing popular, there may be certain terms and conditions attached to this mode of purchase. Online purchases of garden furniture may not be transferable, exchanged or returned especially if the garden furniture pieces were on promotions.Usually full payment for online garden furniture purchases is required before the goods would be delivered to the buyer; that is if the payment goes through. There is the convenience in paying by credit card, charge card, debit card or bank transfers. An international or out of state online purchase of garden furniture would require further communication between the purchaser and retailer to work out the delivery of purchases and the exchange rates of payment. There is also the VAT consideration with payment for international online purchases depending on the garden furniture retailerâ€™s business policies.
