At long last, the time has come when you can splurge on various places of interest in Washington. Now, the question arises here why? Washington is a striking city that is choked with several parks, wide boulevards and avenues, open spaces, sophisticated majestic colonial houses, marble monuments and the list is endless. Because of booming cultural and cosmopolitan atmosphere, it has to be one of the finest cities of the US. You can also experience the war memorials and cathedrals in the city that are must to include in itinerary.

Why most of the travellers prefer heading to Washington in spring season? It is due to the fact that the season has a mild temperature. During this time, you can take a glimpse of cherry trees that are at blossoming. You would come across numerous tourists taking a delight in this awe-inspiring site.

Any visitor visiting the US would certainly come to the countryâ€™s capital as it is home to various tourist attractions. The highlights that are known the world over comprise museums, monuments, the National Mall, government buildings and the Smithsonian museums. So, take air tickets to Washington to feel the liveliness of the city.

How about grasping some historical facts? You can make your way to the National Natural History Museum. Donâ€™t forget to pay a visit to the Air and Space Museum, Gallery of Art, the International Spy Museum and many more. Visit Georgetown which is up-market in Washington. It is home to boutiques, restaurants and remarkable colonial houses. Also, let your hair down with some of the cityâ€™s best nightclubs.

Summer indeed is the best season to visit the city especially over the 4th of July. The day is jammed with street parties, parades and barbeques.
