Article Side

Enjoy your Stay in Royal Tunbridge Wells by Mark Edward

Article published on April 24th 2012 | Travel

Located in the South Eastern part of England, the Royal town of Tunbridge Wells is a town of great history and culture which is more than 400 years old. The town is known due to its fantastic architecture and the facilities of leisure and entertainment. It houses a wide variety of shopping malls and places of amusement. Royal Tunbridge Wells is the center of shopping and entertainment for the nearby small towns, villages and suburban areas. The town houses the best cafÃ©s, restaurants, specialist shops, shopping malls, amusement parks and gardens. It has one of the best transportation facilities including Tunbridge car hire, taxi hire, trains, vans and buses at highly affordable prices that are sure to fit the pockets of everyone.

The town of Royal Tunbridge Wells offers just about anything that a tourist can expect from a large town. It is one of the hottest locations for spending a day out or vacations. The town offers one of the best shopping facilities and is shopperâ€™s haven. Some of the major shopping places of Tunbridge Wells include the Royal Victoria Place shopping center which is located on the East of Kent. This shopping center was inaugurated by Diana, the princess of Wales. The Blue Water Shopping Centre and many other shopping places are highly admired by all. Managing Tunbridge cab booking is simple and easy. After a tiring day, shopping in the malls of Tunbridge Wells, a cab can easily be managed in order to get back to your place. There are a plenty of cabs for hire outside all major shopping malls ready for any kind of pick and drop around the country.

Traveling in Tunbridge to and from London and all other major cities of the country is very easy especially via train. The train services from Tunbridge Wells Railway Station travel after frequent intervals for the convenience of travelers. National Rail and British Rail are the two companies that are serving the railway station of Tunbridge Wells. The town of Tunbridge Wells houses some of the largest and picturesque gardens of the country. The town has many amazing gardens that include The Sissinghurst Castle in the Weald of Kent. Besides there are many small privately held gardens in Tunbridge Wells that open to public. Tunbridge Wells has many of the countryâ€™s famous historic houses. There are a large number of castles including Hever Castle, Penshurst Place and Chartwell.

CrossCab is one of the leading online taxi booking companies of United Kingdom. They are the pioneers of online taxi booking solutions in the town of Tunbridge Wells. CrossCab provides the most efficient and cost effective cab services around the country and has a distinction of having the largest database of vehicles in the town. They offer premium class airport transfer services in Tunbridge to and from Gatwick, Luton, London City, Heathrow, Stansted and all other major airports of the United Kingdom. They get their vehicles MOT (Ministry Of Transport) tested every six months for the safety and comfort of their passengers. Their drivers are courteous, fully vetted and professionally trained and offer the most efficient taxi services around the town.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/enjoy-your-stay-in-royal-tunbridge-wells.htm - Article Side

Mark Edward - About Author:
Managing a Tunbridge cab booking is simple and easy. CrossCab offer premium class airport transfer services in a Tunbridge to and from Gatwick.

Article Keywords:

Tunbridge car hire, Tunbridge cab booking, Tunbridge to and from London, Tunbridge to and from Gatwick

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!