Johannesburg also called the â€˜City of Goldâ€™ offers one of its kind holiday experiences to its customers. It is one of the most visited cities of the world and boasts of many picturesque natural landscapes, breathtaking man-made wonders, world â€“class shopping centers, enriching entertainment venues and delicious cuisines. With a well planned tour itinerary one can savor the best this city has on offer. The Flights to Johannesburg travel portal through its services fully exploits the tourism potential of this metropolis.

One can start off his tour by visiting The Gold Reef City. It showcases the city structure during the gold rush of late 19th century and is built on an old gold mine. After that you can visit the museums and art galleries situated in different locations of the city the most famous being The Museum Africa, The Johannesburg Art Gallery, The Apartheid Museum, The South African National Museum of Military History and The Fort at Constitution Hill. The cheap flights to Johannesburg provide plentiful facilities to its travelers, so that they can enjoy these destinations to the fullest.

Next a visit to the Sowetos (South Western Townships) is also a must as it gives an insight to the mining industry of Johannesburg. On the other hand The Africa Skyscraper provides a majestic view of the city. Taking some time out of oneâ€™s touring schedule a trip to The Johannesburg Civic Theatre gives people, specially the theatre lovers an entertaining experience. The Johannesburg flights provide the best of connectivity along with travel perks such as food availability at discounted rates during flights, lucky coupons, gift vouchers etc, to provide visitors with a complete traveling experience.

After visiting all these tourist destinations you can always head to the shopping malls or markets and buy souvenirs to carry back home. The Rose bank roof top market and the African craft market offer a variety of goods to buy from. The Cinema Art Nouveau is a place where you can watch some excellent movies. And after all these touring you are sure to feel hungry. Fournos, the Rose Bank and Ocean Basket are the most famous eateries to fill your tummies with the most delicious and appetizing African cuisines.
