Choose to live in style when you buy our home embroidery supplies which will offer you comfort combined with lasting quality. Embroidery is very popular in today's fashion scene. In fact, everyone in the public limelight is looking fabulous when using an embroidered product as they can showcase its beauty and fragility.

The bootylicious Beyonce dazzled onlookers at the Met Gala celebrations when she wore a Givenchy Haute Couture dress. This was designed by Riccardo Tisci which was made up of feathers and black embroidery that took a total of 350 hours to make! Proving that excellence can take time, the sheer detail of the embroidery amazed many fashionistas and allowed Beyonce to make the grand entrance that she was hoping for. Although most of the recent news has centred on her stunning baby Blue Ivy, Beyonce showed everyone that she's still got it and proved this with embroidery at the party event of the year.

Embroidery was also praised at L.A. Fashion Week who cited it as an essential summer apparel trend. Using this trend, companies can create a new celebrity style for each customer by embellishing their merchandise with embroidered designs. Customers can keep up with the latest fashion as well as be cool during the hot summer months while companies can be encouraged to create unique fashionable items and maintain the environment. For instance, metallic embroidery can be combined with eco - friendly fabrics such as bamboo and hemp to create an exciting, trendsetting product.

Select an everyday fashion - orientated life when you buy from us as we specialise in Wholesale Embroidery Blanks for your home. Try our super soft hooded towels which are made from 100% cotton terry cloth combined with a chic minky hood. These towels are also suitable for infants and toddlers and are available in a range of designs and colours whether in chocolate brown, hot pink or a delectable turquoise. We also offer trendy embroidered lunch purses which are like no other. Made from heavy duty micro fiber and an insulated inner lining, these purses will be a great investment. They come in a great variety of colours and can be personalised with your initials or your name.

Ironing does not have to be a boring chore any more with our funky embroidered iron covers. These can be easily cared for as they are made from microfiber and have a protective Velcro closure layer. There are so many designs to choose from whether you go for a Leopard print, a black and white paisley or a hot pink paisley. Make sure that your kids are too cool for school as you buy embroidered athletic backpacks. These are also heavy duty as we understand that your kids will want to fill this with all of their heavy sports gear. We have made it easy for large balls to fit inside and the bag also caters for mesh pockets for extra storage. Our product offers more quality for your money by also including a padded back and straps for comfort.

So when you are looking for a comfortable yet fashionable alternative to your home living supplies, choose our embroidered blanks and we can ensure that you keep up with the latest trends in a cost - effective way.
