Considered as â€œqueen of all hill stationsâ€•, Ooty is located at a distance of 105 kilometers from Coimbatore. The destination is one of the favorite tourists spots in the country comprising lofty mountains, thick forests, several tea plantations and some very unique and beautiful vegetation. Filled with stupendous scenic beauty, Ooty can actually help in unwinding from the bustling life and unleash oneâ€™s body and soul.

There are many alluring attractions in and around Ooty that can be visited to have a panoramic view of the place. Nature lovers should definitely not miss out the Government Rose Garden, Ooty Botanical Gardens and the very beautiful Ooty Lake where one can enjoy boating amidst pleasant ambience. While the former garden is the largest rose garden of India with the largest collection of roses the latter one has nearly a thousand exotic and indigenous species of plants, shrubs, ferns, trees, herbal and bonsai plants. Tourists can also visit the Ooty Mountain Railway and embark upon a mountain train journey on a ratchet and pinion track which commences from Kallar, near Mettupalayam. Tourists should not miss St. Stephenâ€™s Church, Wax World and the tribal museum. Another major attraction is the Doddabetta peak, the highest point of the district. Ooty is even closer to other tourist destinations like Coonor, Coimbatore, Coorg etc. To enjoy a comfortable stay, there are plenty of hotels in Ooty that cater to various tastes and budgets.
