Renting the San Felipe rentals is much better option than booking a hotel because it involves better bargains than hotel bookings. The matter is not only about money saving. If you want to get the peace of mind in the solitude beaches than the San Felipe rental would be the best choice of you rather than hotels. In fact, the large number of rentals is located near the sea shore of Dominican Republic. There are large number of activities to do for you and your children. Your children can occupy by the water splash on the seawater in the sandy beaches.

There are some benefits for renting a home in San Felipe:

1. The vacation rentals in San Felipe are much more spacious than hotel rooms and give you the exotic comfort from the nice view in the gallery of the beach in the evening and the early morning.

2. The San Felipe rental homes are much more popular in comparison to the hotels. There are many Americans have owned many of the rental homes in San Felipe during the years of real estate boom and they are making their profits by renting their homes to tourists. This is also the main reason why San Felipe tourism is so much popular.

3. In addition, the vacation resorts and rentals has the best amenities at no extra cost like swimming pool, tennis courts, pickle courts and even more. These amenities are designed especially to entertain you and your family throughout the day. Except golf course of 18 holes, all the amenities are free and in the golf course, the discount is also offered to the guests staying in rental homes.

Apart from just vacation rentals, San Felipe is also very famous for various off-road races on the desert of Dominican Republic. The off-road races are organized in both the American and Mexican series. There are some popular racing events like Baja 250, San Felipe 250 and even more. San Felipe is also sandwiched between the sea and the Sierra San Pedro Martir Mountains. This mountain is the tallest mountain of Baja California. The highest peak is Cerro de la Encantada that is about 3096 meter high (10158 feet). Since this is the highest peak in the state of Baja California, this is termed as Devilâ€™s peak. This is scaled with the rock climbers. In this point, there is a park that is famous for its pine trees, granite rock formations, and also for various animals including white sheep that can also be seen.

If you are planning to visit San Felipe, I want to suggest you that fall, winter or spring is the best time to visit unless what you want to looking for is hot summer for which San Felipe is famous. In the sea of Cortez, you can immerse yourself with the aqua-colored sea water. Each season has its own personality in San Felipe but the real change is happens in this place especially in November where the â€˜snowbirdâ€™ migration takes place that is a major natural phenomenon of this place.

When it comes to eating in San Felipe, this is no challenge especially if you would like to have some fish. There are various Italian restaurants where you can enjoy various types of Mexican and Italian dishes like marlin carpaccio appetizer, calamari and even more. There are also available sea foods like lobsters, clams and various other sea creatures to taste. Baja Mar Sea Food Restaurant that is located on the Malecon is famous for delicious seafood and various other dishes. There are restaurants make you feel great with their healthy and delicious varieties of seafood.
