Article published on December 6th 2011 | Home Improvement

There are some home improvement Fairfax, VA projects you can handle yourself, and some that are best left to the experts like a good roofing contractor Fairfax, VA. When you find yourself face to face with one of those tricky projects that calls for a little more than a simple DIY project done over the weekend, or any job that you absolutely, positively need done right, hereâ€™s what you want to look for in a private contractor.

A Solid Reputation

This is really the foundation of trust for hiring a private contractor for a home improvement Fairfax, VA project. You want to find somebody who has a good reputation in the community so that you know that they deliver the results that they promise. Any contractor can buy a full page ad in the yellow pages. Any contractor can hire a top notch web designer and create a good looking website. A contractor who gets referrals, who has a reputation in their community as a skillful, qualified professional is a contractor who has, at the very least, provided quality service to the very customers who sing their praises.

Experience

Experience isnâ€™t just proof that this person is good enough to make a living at home improvement Fairfax, VA, itâ€™s where knowledge comes from. Experience is the difference between a contractor who just knows the basics of their job and a contractor who is rarely surprised. In other words, theyâ€™ve seen everything and know how to solve just about any problem in the home and they can look at these problems from every possible angle. Where a less experienced contractor might now how to replace a window, a more experienced contractor can tell you which window will save you more money in the long run.

Pricing

When it comes to quality and pricing for a home improvement Fairfax, VA project, thereâ€™s certainly a correlation there, but itâ€™s a myth that you have to spend an arm and a leg on good, quality service. High priced contractors may know their business, but so might a contractor who quotes you at ten or twenty percent less. If you only look at price, you may wind up with a contractor who lacks the experience necessary to do a job well, but nevertheless, thereâ€™s no point in paying more than you need to for quality repairs and installation.

Specialties

A lot of contractors are great handymen. They can patch up a window, they can install some basic wiring, but theyâ€™re not really an expert at anything. Jack of all trades, master of none, so the phrase goes. Kirby Kerns has been specializing in the following for more than forty years.

>> Roofing

>> Skylights

>> Gutters

>> Siding

>> Windows

>> Doors

This is a somewhat shorter list than many contractors would boast, but at the end of the day, you want the very best door man in Fairfax to handle your door, the very best skylight man in VA to handle your skylight, and the very best window installer around to install your windows. You donâ€™t need the countyâ€™s best floor tiler to handle your roofing.

Expertise, knowledge, experience and affordable pricing have all made Kirby Kerns Contractor Inc. Fairfaxâ€™s go to home improvement business for forty years.
