Diamonds are the most beautiful and precious gift ever for your loved one. If you want to express your true felling then these are the best way to say how much you love and care for her. They show your complete commitment, trust and affection as they are the symbol of pure love. The special occasions like engagement and wedding are most important days that only come once in a life, you will definitely want to make these days memorable forever. Buying best and cheap diamond engagement ring is the best way to capture beautiful moments from the special day. Now buying a perfect ring not a simple task because you will find huge rang of diamond engagement ring in the market and it is quite difficult to select the one she like most. If you want to know about how you can buy a perfect diamond engagement ring then keep reading this article, we will give you few tips to select the best one.

The first and most important thing you should consider before buying is choice. Always take care of her liking and disliking. Check out the style of jewelry she prefers to wear, whether she likes round cut or princess cut stone, yellow gold, white gold or platinum, solitaire ring or ring with more number of diamonds. Therefore go with her choice of jewelry.

Consider the most important factors that show the value and quality of a diamond. These factors are Carat, Color, and Clarity and cut also known as 4Cs. From these factors cut is most important factor because a perfect cut can give maximum number of sparkles. A brilliant round cut can reflect maximum number of light rays that enhance the brightness of the diamond engagement ring.

Metals which are used to make the ring also play important role to give a complete look. Generally engagement rings are available in Yellow gold, White Gold and platinum. If you consider durability then platinum is the most preferred metal which is followed by gold. Platinum strongly holds the diamond in it give proper setting.

Buy only certified diamonds. Always check for certification of diamonds before you buy. Certification shows the authentication of diamonds. Therefore buy original one.

Setting is the other important factor in the cheap diamond rings. A perfect setting can enhance the beauty of a diamond ring. Solitaire ring give a simple classic look to the ring. If you want that your diamond look bigger and brighter than you can add extra side diamonds setting in the ring.

Diamond engagement ring should be according to the size of figure. It should be perfectly fit in the figure. So itâ€™s better to take the size of figure before you buy.

The last and important factor is budget. Buy a ring that according to the planned budget. Diamonds are quite expensive so its better to consider your budget before you buys.

These all are important things which you should consider before buying a diamond engagement ring. These would definitely help you to find the best you want.
