Motherâ€™s Pride, one of the top pre-schools of the country organized a grand event to support its NGO Sparsh. The event was devoted to the upliftment of underprivileged children at the Siri Fort Auditorium on from 17 to 20 February. The day was a dual celebration as it also marked as the annual day of Motherâ€™s Pride Schools.

The mega event was graced by prestigious individualities including Amol Palekar, Vinod Kambali, Jagdish Mukhi, Aarti Mehra. At the occasion Mrs. Sudha Gupta, Chairperson of Motherâ€™s Pride and Chief Mentor of Sparsh presented a check of Rs 51 lacs on behalf of the entire Mother's Pride family. These funds will be devoted to create each unique kid of Savera Special University, separate and self dependent. The excellent performance given by children of Sparsh left everyone awestruck and emotional as they presented their unique abilities in front of the enormous viewers.

The theme of the event was â€˜Wonders of Curiosityâ€™ enjoying the curiosity of kids. Around 20,000 parents and grandparents witnessed the amazing performances given by little kids. The small children were seen performing confidently on the stage wearing vibrant impressive outfits making the viewers mesmerized. The kids performed on these Programmes:-

Motherâ€™s Pride has been constantly working towards the natural development of a kid starting from the early stage. The school not only encourages academics but nourishes the kid with love and care creating a life-long bond. The parents of the tiny toddlers were seen overwhelmed by the efficiency of their kids.

Motherâ€™s Pride once again was as an example to lend its assistance towards special children of Sparsh and encouraged their abilities on such a huge platform in order to make them stand hand in hand with the normal kids. The even was an amazing success making beautiful impressions of pleasure, tears, laughing out loud and joy.
