Yamaha YZFR15 is the latest offering of the company which is a pioneer name in the motorcycle industry. Their bikes are developed with the concept of harmony between a man and his machine. If both of these are not compatible then it leads to myriad of problems on the road. This new model is everything which the bikers can hope for. In these two wheelers the frontal space is quite enlarged which is the signature of the Yamaha Bikes. This feature adds to the safety of the rider. The sitting area is made for maneuvering and the ease of movement. And above all is the glamorous looks which catches the eye at the very first chance.

Changes from the previous versions

In the new version of the Yamaha R15, the mid-fairing space is much more beefy compared to before. The aerodynamic capacity of the machine has increased substantially because of the presence of slotted vents. The split-seat if the bike has been angled to a much sleeker degree compared to before. This gives it is fantastic wasp like appearance. The LED tail lamp has been placed at an increased height compared to before. The Yamaha YZF R15 is comparatively longer and this is because of an extended wheelbase.

Specifications for the Yamaha YZFR15

The tuning of the engine is such that it is custom made for high torque and high power. It is for this reason the Yamaha YZF R15 is a scorcher on the sports tracks. It contains 6-speed transmissions. Another sports suspension which is in the form of links is present in the back region. The engine of this mean yet elegant machine is 4-stroke with a single cylinder of 149.8 cc. the radiator is in the front part with its fan behind the engine. This model of Yamaha Bikes contains dual headlights. Without doubt this is the coolest motorcycle in the market below 200 cc range.

The Yamaha YZFR15price

The approximate Yamaha YZF R15 price in India is around Rupees 107,000. This figure includes the statutory taxes, road and state taxes, insurance, RTO charges for registration and also extra fittings which need to be added. These may consist of number plates and seat covers just to name a few. The ex-showroom price has been set at Rupees 97, 425. This may seem quite expensive at the very first chance. But when you consider the high standards which have been used by the manufacturers during the designing of the bike and the performance of this machine on the race tracks the Yamaha YZF R15 price does seem justified.

However the ultimate decision regarding this lies with the buyer. But there is simply no doubt regarding the fact that this Yamaha bike is going to be everybodyâ€™s envy and the ownerâ€™s pride.
