If you want to explore all of Costa Blanca from Denia to Torreviaje, then you should definitely consider hiring a car. You will want a vehicle to travel around the region and see more during your stay in Spain. A car hire Alicante is one way to go and then take off from there to the other destinations.

You can choose between several different trusted car rental companies that operate from the Alicante airport in Costa Blanca. You can check out the prices at Centauro, Avis, Europcar, Auriga, Atesa, Hertz, and Sol Mar. All of these companies are inside the airport near the arrival area and can be accessed from both arrivals and departures.

To gauge what price you will be paying for a car hire, it will depend greatly on your needs and the time of year you are visiting. If you choose to come in the high season the prices will be more. The price will also be more if you have a large family or group of friends and you need to rent a larger car.

If you need to rent a car while you are already in the city then company will pay for your transportation to and from the airport to pick up your car. No matter where you are when you decide to rent a car, you will want to compare prices. You should check online or use a travel agent to discover the best price for your needs.

You can also save money by contacting the companies directly rather than the Internet alone. Many times there will be a local deal that you canâ€™t get online, so you will want to compare. The staff should have someone who speaks English who can help you with your care hire. When you get the price you will want to make sure it includes insurance and anything else you may need.

If you want to make sure that your car will be there then you should definitely book it ahead of time. In the summer things can get full very quickly so you wonâ€™t want to wait until the last minute. You may also end up paying more for your car if you wait until the last minute to rent it.

You should consider any amenities that you want before you rent your car. If you are traveling in the summertime, then you may want to spend the extra money to rent a car that has air conditioning in it. The summer can be very hot and you wonâ€™t enjoy your trip if you are sweltering.

Insurance should be a priority when you are renting your car. You should know what your personal insurance covers and how much more insurance you need to buy to be covered while you are in Spain. Donâ€™t skimp on the insurance it is too important in protecting you and your family.
