Article Side
San Jose Auto Repair and Services at B & C Auto by Kristen Nolan

Article published on March 30th 2012 | Auto

B & C Auto Center in San Jose, California provides some of the highest quality auto repairs and services to be found in the country. They have a 97.4% referral rating by past customers on Demandforce.com and consistently rank extremely high on Angie's List as well by a multitude of delighted customers.

Expertise

B&C Auto Center has proven they are a San Jose auto repair shop that has all the expertise to service all major and minor systems and parts for both domestic and foreign vehicles. Their San Jose auto service employs only the most highly trained ASE certified, master automotive technicians. Their San Jose car repair services include brake parts, suspension repair, exhaust system services, plus most every type of engine and transmission issue that a vehicle owner would to have service for. Specifically their expert brake service in San Jose provides the highest standards of automotive service possible. Moreover, they utilize only the most state-of-the-art tools, supplies and equipment to help diagnose and solve even the most complex car troubles.

Experience

B & C Auto has more than thirty years of professional experience in the automotive service and repair industry. Their experience has given them insight to their customersâ€™ needs and they provide extra services to help them including offering rental cars, convenient shuttle services, as well as a substantive two year/24,000 mile warranty on every repair they perform. With this experience came the great idea of ensuring that every vehicle a customer brings in for service or repair will come out in much better shape than when it was brought in due to their strict attention to the most precise service and repair details.

Professional Customer Service

Their San Jose auto service also includes extending only the highest standards of customer appreciation and satisfaction. They give each customer exceptional levels of honesty, fairness, and dependability with each service or repair they perform. They're extremely proud and passionate about the level of care and concern that they show to all their customers and past clients have had complete satisfaction when using their professional automotive services on all their cars, trucks, SUVs and vans. Residents living in the area truly won't be able to find a more exceptional San Jose auto repair shop. Give them a call the next time you need to bring in your vehicle for service at 408 267-1114 or visit their website at www.bcautocenter.com.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/auto-articles/san-jose-auto-repair-and-services-at-b-c-auto.htm - Article Side

Kristen Nolan - About Author:
Reliable Service Destination in San Jose for a auto repair & maintenance of all Brands: American or Foreign cars. Best Warranties Guaranteed.

Article Keywords:
san jose auto repair, reliable auto repair san jose, auto repair shop in san jose, san jose auto mechanic

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!