A very huge market of used cars Winnipeg is ruled by Auto Max Canada. Used car could be as good as new if you do proper research and choose an appropriate dealer. It can be a great cause of trouble as well if you are stuck with a bad deal.

Buying a brand new car might put a lot of load on your pocket. However you can get a vehicle as good as new with bottom low prices. You can always go to certified dealers to buy used automobiles. What this will do is, ensure that vehicle is problem free when it reaches to you. How? Answer is simple. Dealer would thoroughly check and make sure that car is good. If there is a problem in vehicle it would be dealerâ€™s responsibility to get it repaired. Also before selling he would make sure that all small touch ups & paintings are done to give you a satisfactory deal. So it becomes a profitable deal for you.

Another major thing is if you plan to buy directly form a private seller, he might ask you for more price claiming that he kept vehicle with utmost care. Only mechanics and experienced person can tell about condition of the car. A dealer would make proper inspection of vehicle and only then would charge price. So in a way buying through a dealer is more satisfactory.

Some easy steps that you can yourself also check before buying a used care could be:

1. Start with engine cold and opening the hood. Make sure you do not hear any unusual noise and check for smoke from exhaust pipe. It should be white and blue.

2. Check oil color it should be light to dark brown. Dark colored oil means it has not been changed that means proper maintenance has not been kept.

3. Check for rust or any other damage on body and ensure that nothing is hidden from you like any damage to car or any problem in accessories. Also check for any overspray of paint in case seller is trying to hide some scratches or any such thing.

4. The most important step, a test drive of vehicle. Makes sure you drive it in all conditions, from smooth roads to bumpy surroundings to get a real check of the carâ€™s condition.

These are simple and easy methods to ensure quality of automobile however do consult an expert mechanic before buying one on your on.
