The first Vw Beetle was basically produced and initiated by the one and only Adolf Hitler who wanted a vehicle that every German could afford. It was as the nation had hit an economic depression after the First World War. The manufacturer and designer of the affordable new vehicle was none other than Ferdinand Porsche who was later responsible for the complete Porsche brand of luxury vehicles.

The Beetle was designed with a rear motor along with a comfortable interior which can hold a maximum of two adults and up to three kids. That's the size of the common family of the time. Because it was affordable, they had thousands of these cars designed for people to buy. As a matter of fact, the term Volkswagen itself means, 'the people's car' or more specially 'the people's wagon'. Even with the growing popularity of the new designs that Volkswagen releases, the love of the old models of Volkswagen cars is quite prominent. There is a huge population out there that love to shop for an old used VW, just so they could drive an older model.

There are several used Vw dealers in Scottsdale, if you reside in or close to the state. Cautious consideration has to be given in the choice of dealership one chooses to purchase a new or used VW car.

Advantages of a Used VW

There are plenty of a used Volkswagen that is forty- fifty years old in excellent condition simply about anywhere right now. You could think that a used car that's sold at some Vw dealers will be a bad purchase idea. You might want to think again. These cars were made to be strong and long lasting. When they were first released they were advertised by showing a Beetle driving over a rough sand dune and still going steady. If you opt for a thing that is a few years old, then you might easily find those models at Scottsdale Vw dealers.

- A model for example the old Beetle might need a little fixing however its back engine design and easy maintenance needs you can still expect it to work completely fine.

- These cars are fantastic on gas mileage. They give no less than 40 miles per gallon on city streets. It really is a great 15 miles more than what your average car could give. Presently with modern changes you can simply expect up to twenty eight miles per gallon however that is still 8 or 9 miles more per gallon than what the average car gives.

- Another benefit is that you can get these durable, fun, and so stylish cars for a very low price. You will find an old used Volkswagen from many Volkswagen dealers in Scottsdale for a value no higher than $18,000. That is already for a relatively new VW Beetle. If you are planning to get a Vw Passat or a Phaeton then you can expect the prices to jump a little bit higher but for a used model you can expect the costs to sit relatively under $30,000.

- Last of all you can be sure of your safety. A used Volkswagen is still a factory manufactured Vw and that means you get all of the sturdy safety measures. A certified pre-owned car will ensure company warranty. These cars are well-known for being some of the safest cars on the road. You get doors which have steel reinforcements, reflectors built onto the doors, and moreover daylight running lights.

If you were to get only one used car in your lifetime then a used Vw, is undoubtedly is smart decision. The Volkswagen was designed to be safe, durable, practical, and also affordable, keeping the style factor high. Over time it has proven these points with flying colors and also truly stands as the people's car. With their popularity all it takes is a simple click to locate a list of Scottsdale Vw dealers plus you'll be on your way to owning a car worth its name.
