Holidays into the land of Maharajas and Kings

by Ankittch

Article published on November 30th 2011 | Aviation

Rajasthan has emerged as an important exotic destination for the tourists visiting from different parts of the world. Holidays in Rajasthan usually provide you the opportunity to explore the new world full of majestic palaces, forts, vibrant royal cultures, histories followed by the beautiful natural wonders in the form of astonishing sand dunes.

Rajasthan the largest state of the country comprises of the most attractive culture of the country provides some of the exciting and awesome attractions which enthrall the beholders who are often taken aback once they land over there.

Rajasthan is the land of wonders; the specific sightseeing sites that have popularized the state are the vibrant cities like Jaipur Tours, Udaipur Tours, Jodhpur and Bikaner.

Rajasthan holidays majorly revolve around the magnificent cities of Jaipur and Udaipur. Jaipur, the capital city of the state is full of touristy flavors and charms. The city Jaipur has been named so after Raja Jai Singh II. This city is the cultural hub of the state where thousands of tourists pay visit to see attractions like Hawa Mahal, Jantar Mantar, City Palace, Amber fort, Jaigarh Fort, Nahargarh fort, Rajmahal palace, Jaimahal palace, Bissaue palace, Samode palace, Albert Museum, Kanak valley and Central Museum.

These architectural marvels showcase the rich cultures of the Kings and Maharajas. Hawa Mahal shows the architectural royal wonder that was built by Maharaja Sawai Pratap Singh for the royal ladies who had to watch the entire proceedings of the people in the city. It gives the glimpse of the Crown of Lord Krishna and a giant honeybee hive. Jantar Mantar has indeed become an integral part of the holidays in Rajasthan taken by people. It is the largest open astronomical observatory in the entire world.

City palace once again truly shows the lifestyles of the royal people which is considered to be so beautiful that it becomes a way of relaxing the tired eyes of the beholders. Ambert fort is also worth visiting; it was built beautifully by Maharaja Man Singh during 16th century over the hillside. It provides the classic romance of the earlier Rajas and Maharajas of Kacchwaha Dynasty. Tourists can get it as paradise looking the beautiful interior designs of various paintings inside.

Many other buildings are significant from the cultural point of views. Besides, the man-made monuments and cultural wonders, tourists can also have some of the breathtaking sights of the nature. Holidays in Rajasthan will take tourists to the wonderful and unique world of lakes; the presence of the beautiful lakes has given Udaipur a new name as â€œCity of lakesâ€•.

Apart from the wonderful lakes there are various hills stations in Mount Abu which normally give tourists the most unimagined awesome experiences. These hills stations can cater tourists the strongly desired flavors of the romantic holidays. A holiday in Rajasthan without visiting the great Indian Thar Desert will lack in flavors as because it has become an integral part of the Rajasthan tourism.

In the country of so many states, Rajasthan has emerged as the most fulfilling dream destination for the tourists.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/aviation-articles/holidays-into-the-land-of-maharajas-and-kings.htm - Article Side

Ankittch - About Author:
Ankit is an eminent analyst and writer in Travel & Tourism related topics. He has authored many books on tour guide for a Rajasthan Holidays and a Rajasthan Tour.

Article Keywords:
Rajasthan Tour, Rajasthan Holidays, Tour to Rajasthan

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!